

441—101.21(252B,252H) Child care add-on. Child support services will review a child care add-on or expense agreement contained in any permanent child support order that is subject to review under rule 441—101.7(252B,252H) or 441—101.13(252H) as follows:

101.21(1) Order with child care add-on.

a. If the custodial parent provides the necessary information to determine the amount of child care expenses as described in 441—paragraph 99.4(2)“c,” child support services will review the information and apply the child care add-on based on the guidelines, if appropriate. Any resulting child care add-on will replace the existing child care add-on.

b. If the custodial parent does not provide the necessary information to determine the amount of child care expenses as described in 441—paragraph 99.4(2)“c,” the resulting modified child support amount will no longer include an added amount for child care expenses.

101.21(2) Order with child care expense agreement. Child support services will review an order with an existing child care expense agreement entered in lieu of a child care add-on as follows:

a. If the custodial parent provides the necessary information to determine the amount of child care expenses as described in 441—paragraph 99.4(2)“c,” child support services will review the information and apply the child care add-on based on the guidelines, if appropriate. Any resulting child care add-on will replace the existing child care expense agreement.

b. If the custodial parent does not provide the necessary information to determine the amount of child care expenses as described in 441—paragraph 99.4(2)“c,” child support services will recommend that any existing child care expense agreement remain unchanged.

101.21(3) Order without a child care add-on or expense agreement. If the custodial parent provides the necessary information to determine the amount of child care expenses as described in 441—paragraph 99.4(2)“c” and there is no current child care expense agreement or child care add-on, child support services will review the information and apply the appropriate child care add-on based on the guidelines.
