

281—60.1(280) Scope. These rules apply to the identification of students and provision of programs for limited English proficient students and to the application procedures for securing fiscal support.