

281—56.4 (259) Individuals who are recipients of SSD/SSI. Recipients of social security disability payments or supplemental security income payments are presumed eligible as being significantly disabled and are eligible for vocational rehabilitation services if such recipients demonstrate eligibility under rules 281—56.8(259) and 281—56.13(259). Recipients who demonstrate eligibility under rules 281—56.8(259) and 281—56.13(259) must also demonstrate need in the employment plan under rule 281—56.14(259). Nothing in this rule automatically entitles a recipient of social security disability payments or supplemental security income payments to any good or service provided by the division.
