

263—7.1(368) When board approval required. Applications for voluntary annexation of territory within another city's urbanized area and voluntary annexation requests including some property without the owner's consent must be approved by both the city receiving the territory and the city development board.