

641—100.5(144) Certificate following determination of paternity. A certified copy of the court determination of paternity along with the request of the mother that a new certificate be prepared must be submitted to the state registrar in order that a new certificate may be prepared.