

286—4.8(256) Financial responsibility for damage. The user is financially responsible for any damage to or loss of library property. The user is responsible for leaving the state library ICN classroom in good order. Failure to leave the room in good order, misconduct, loss of or damage to library property are grounds to refuse any user and may result in the immediate termination of the meeting or event.