

191—38.7(509,514) Reasonable cash value of services. A secondary plan which provides benefits in the form of services may recover the reasonable cash value of providing the services from the primary plan, to the extent that benefits for the services are covered by the primary plan, and have not already been paid or provided by the primary plan. Nothing in this rule shall be interpreted to require a plan to reimburse a covered person in cash for the value of services provided by a plan which provides benefits in the form of services.
