

871—42.9(22,84A) Disclosure without the consent of the subject.

42.9(1) An open record is routinely disclosed without the consent of the subject.

42.9(2) To the extent allowed by law, disclosure of a confidential record may occur without the consent of the subject. Following are instances where disclosure, if lawful, will generally occur without consent of the subject:

- a.* For a routine use as defined in rule 871—42.10(22,84A).
- b.* To another governmental agency or to an instrumentality of any governmental jurisdiction within or under the control of the United States for a civil or criminal law enforcement activity if the activity is authorized by law, and if an authorized representative of such governmental agency or instrumentality has submitted a written request to the agency specifying the record desired and the law enforcement activity for which the record is sought.
- c.* To the legislative services agency under Iowa Code section 2A.3.
- d.* Disclosure in the course of employee disciplinary proceedings.
- e.* In response to a court order or subpoena.
- f.* To the citizens' aide under Iowa Code section 2C.9(3).
