

681—3.54(19A) Eligibility to compete in examinations. Anyone who applies for employment in a specific class at a regents institution and who meets the minimum qualifications prescribed for that class, and who is not rejected or disqualified under 3.55(19A), will have the right to take an examination when offered for that class.