

481—9.10(13B) Claims determined to be excessive. The state public defender may review any claim submitted for reimbursement of expenses. If the state public defender determines a claim to be excessive, within 30 days of the department's receipt of a claim, the state public defender may request a hearing before the court granting the claim for the purpose of reviewing the claim. The claim will be:

1. Awarded for the entire amount requested; or
2. Reduced if the court also determines the claim to be excessive.
