FOR RELEASE _____ September 4, 2014 _____

Auditor of State Mary Mosiman today released a report on a special investigation of the State Public Defender's Office for the period July 1, 2009 through August 31, 2013. The State Public Defender's Office is an administratively attached unit of the Iowa Department of Inspections and Appeals which coordinates the provision of legal representation to indigent persons. The legal representation is provided through State Public Defender Offices or through private attorneys who contract with the State Public Defender or who are appointed by the Court. The special investigation was requested by the State Public Defender as a result of concerns regarding claims submitted by certain contract attorneys.

Mosiman reported the special investigation identified $311,182.93 of disbursements to 11 attorneys who billed the State Public Defender's Office for more than 12 hours in a single day and 13 attorneys who improperly claimed reimbursement for mileage. The attorneys include Jennifer Meyer, Joanie Grife, Dennis Mathahs, Richard Buffington, Jason Hauser, David Pargulski, Nathaniel Tagtow, Steven Clarke, Laura Lockwood, Jane White, Katharine Strickler, Magdalena Reese, and Matthew Noel. Mosiman reported it was not possible to determine if additional amounts were disbursed to the attorneys for days which exceeded 12 hours because certain claims were not readily available. In addition, it was not possible to determine if specific activities, such as phone calls, research and preparing documents, were accurately reported by each attorney. In addition, it was not possible to determine whether the length of time reported by the attorneys was reasonable for every case.

Mosiman reported the disbursements identified include $45,582.00 paid to the attorneys for 50 days for which they individually claimed 24 hours or more in a single day, $51,912.00 for 90 days for which they individually claimed at least 20 but less than 24 hours in a single day, $116,988.00 for 390 days for which they individually claimed more than 15 but less than 20 hours in a single day and $51,954.00 for 612 days for which they individually claimed more than 12 but not more than 15 hours in a single day. The disbursements identified include only the amount paid to the attorneys for more than 12 hours for a single day.

Mosiman reported the disbursements identified also include $41,344.93 for mileage improperly claimed by the attorneys and $3,402.00 of other improper payments. The attorneys claimed mileage to the same destination for 750 days, which resulted in payments for 1,588 duplicate trips. The mileage claimed was not allocated among the cases. Instead, the attorneys claimed the full amount of mileage for each case as if the case was the only one for which they traveled to the destination that day.

Mosiman also reported Mr. Mathahs, Ms. Strickler, Mr. Clarke, Ms. Lockwood, Ms. White, Ms. Reese, and Mr. Tagtow repaid the State Public Defender's Office for excess mileage and other expenses included on claims they submitted. The repayments from the attorneys total $12,253.43.

The report also includes recommendations to strengthen the Office's internal controls, such as improvements to policies and procedures established by the State Public Defender's Office to ensure amounts claimed are appropriate. Recommended improvements include tracking hours claimed by day and ensuring additional costs, such as mileage, are properly allocated between cases.

Copies of the report have been filed with the County Attorney's Offices in Dubuque, Fayette, Iowa, Marshall, and Polk Counties, the Attorney General's Office, and the Division of Criminal Investigation. A copy of the report is available for review in the Office of Auditor of State and on the Auditor of State's web site at <http://auditor.iowa.gov/specials/1160-4270-OE01.pdf>.

Auditor of State's Report

To Sam Langholz, State Public Defender

As a result of alleged improprieties regarding certain claims filed with the Office of the State Public Defender, we conducted a special investigation of the Department of Inspections and Appeals, Office of the State Public Defender (SPD). We have applied certain tests and procedures to claims paid to certain attorneys who contracted with SPD to provide legal representation to indigent clients. Based on our review of relevant information and discussions with officials and staff from SPD, we performed the following procedures for the period July 1, 2009 through August 31, 2013 or for the period specified:

- (1) Evaluated internal controls to determine whether adequate policies and procedures were in place and operating effectively.
- (2) Scanned the listing created by SPD which summarized payments to attorneys to determine if any amounts paid appeared unreasonable.
- (3) Reviewed correspondence between SPD and certain attorneys regarding billing practices and concerns identified by SPD to obtain an understanding of information provided by the attorneys. We also discussed the concerns identified with SPD representatives.
- (4) Reviewed claims and related billing statements submitted by certain attorneys to determine mathematical accuracy and if the claims agreed with information recorded on the related billing statements. The claims reviewed were paid to the following attorneys for the periods specified:
 - Dennis Mathahs - August 2009 to March 2013
 - Richard Buffington - August 2009 to March 2013
 - David Pargulski - August 2009 to December 2012
 - Jason Hauser - August 2009 to December 2012
 - Steven Clarke - November 2009 to January 2013
 - Jane White - April 2011 to December 2012
 - Jeremy Evans - December 2010 to March 2011
 - Katharine Strickler - August 2012 to June 2013
 - Magdalena Reese - June 2011 to August 2013
 - Laura Lockwood - August 2009 to January 2013
 - Nathaniel Tagtow - April 2011 to January 2013
 - Joanie Grife - August 2009 to August 2013
 - Jennifer Meyer - August 2009 to August 2013
 - Matthew Noel - July 2011 to June 2014

- (5) Summarized information from the claims and billing statements to determine the number of hours and costs attorneys listed in (4) above reported for specific days. We then reviewed the total hours and costs reported per day by attorney to determine reasonableness.
- (6) Summarized all mileage from the claims and billing statements paid to the attorneys listed in (4) above to determine if the costs were properly allocated to the appropriate cases.
- (7) Interviewed Mr. Mathahs to discuss his billing practices. Other attorneys declined to meet with us.

These procedures identified $266,436.00 of disbursements to certain attorneys who billed the State Public Defender's Office for more than 12 hours in a single day. The procedures also identified $41,344.93 for mileage improperly claimed by the attorneys and $3,402.00 of other improper payments. We were unable to determine if additional amounts were improperly disbursed to the attorneys for claims submitted prior to the periods specified and because certain claims were not readily available. We were also unable to determine if specific activities, such as phone calls, research and preparing documents, were accurately reported on the claims and billing statements reviewed. In addition, we were unable to determine whether the length of time the attorneys reported was reasonable for every case. Several internal control weaknesses were also identified. Our detailed findings and recommendations are presented in the Investigative Summary and Exhibits A through Q of this report.

The procedures described above do not constitute an audit of financial statements conducted in accordance with U. S. generally accepted auditing standards. Had we performed additional procedures, or had we performed an audit of financial statements of the Office of the State Public Defender, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

Copies of this report have been filed with the County Attorney's Offices in Dubuque, Fayette, Iowa, Marshall, and Polk Counties, the Attorney General's Office, and the Division of Criminal Investigation.

We would like to acknowledge the assistance and many courtesies extended to us by officials and personnel of the Office of the State Public Defender and the Division of Criminal Investigation during the course of our investigation.

Report on Special Investigation of the Department of Inspections and Appeals
Office of the State Public Defender
Investigative Summary

Background Information

The Office of the State Public Defender (SPD) is an administratively attached unit of the Iowa Department of Inspections and Appeals and consists of an Administration Division, a Local Public Defender Division and an Appellate Defender Office. The SPD coordinates provision of legal representation to indigent persons who are accused of committing crimes or involved in juvenile court matters. The Appellate Defender Office represents indigent persons in all aspects of the direct appeal to the Iowa Supreme Court of their criminal convictions or in their appeals from the denial of post conviction relief. The legal representation is provided through SPD Offices or through private attorneys who contract with the State Public Defender or who are appointed by the Court. The types of cases handled by the SPD include:

- felonies,
- misdemeanors, if there exists a potential for jail sentence,
- juvenile matters, including delinquency, termination of parental rights, child in need of assistance, judicial bypass proceedings and juvenile commitments,
- probation and parole revocation cases,
- civil commitment proceedings and
- other matters authorized by law.

The SPD started the Contract Attorney Program in 1993. Attorneys authorized to practice in Iowa may contract with SPD. The name of the attorney will be included on a list maintained by a particular county. The Court of the particular county will first appoint the local public defender, but the Court must appoint a contract attorney if the public defender is unable to take the case. Appointments are done on a rotating basis considering the experience of the attorney and the difficulty of the case. If the contract attorney is unable to handle the case, the Court may appoint a private or non-contract attorney.

Court appointed attorneys must submit written claims to SPD for review, approval and payment. The claims must include a Fee Claim Form, a copy of the signed order appointing the attorney, a copy of any application to exceed fee limitations, a copy of any order that affects the amount to be paid, an itemized list of all work done, a copy of any application and court order authorizing expenses for experts, investigators, translators or depositions and a copy of any receipts for payment of expenses.

Claims should typically be submitted at the conclusion of each case, but may be paid at interim points under the following circumstances:

- Juvenile cases – Initial claims for services may be submitted after the dispositional hearing, if any. Subsequent claims may be submitted after each juvenile court review hearing held on the case.
- Appellate cases – The attorney may submit a claim after filing the attorney's proof brief and a final claim at the conclusion of the case.
- Class A felony cases – Interim claims may be submitted once every 3 months, with the first claim submitted at least 90 days following the effective date of the attorney's appointment.

The hourly rate established by SPD for attorneys appointed to juvenile cases has been $60 per hour for all appointments after June 30, 2007. The rates established by SPD for attorneys appointed to adult and appellate cases after June 30, 2007 are summarized in Table 1.

Description	Amount
Attorney time:
Class A felonies	$ 70/hour
Class B felonies	$ 65/hour
All other criminal cases	$ 60/hour
All other cases	$ 60/hour
Paralegal time	$ 25/hour

In addition to the hourly rates established by SPD, fee limitations for combined attorney time and paralegal time have been established based on the type of case. The fee limitations established for certain types of cases are listed in Table 2.

Type of Case	Fee Limitations
Class A felonies	$ 18,000
Class B felonies	3,600
Class C felonies	1,800
Class D felonies	1,200
Aggravated misdemeanors	1,200
Serious misdemeanors	600
Simple misdemeanors	300
Proceedings under Iowa Code Chapter 229A	10,000
Child in Need of Assistance (CINA) and delinquency (through disposition)	1,200

SPD also reimburses the following expenses for court appointed cases if they are reasonable, necessary, and relate to a case the attorney is appointed to by the Court. The following reimbursement rates were effective during the period of our review.

- Travel – Mileage at $.35 per mile on or after February 1, 2008. The number of miles driven must be listed in the itemization of services or on the claim form.
- Photocopy expenses – reimbursed at $.10 per page. The number of copies made must be listed in the itemization of services or on the claim form. If actual costs exceed $.10 per page, the attorney may attach a receipt from an outside vendor for the claimed expenses.
- Telephone expenses – Reimbursed for the actual cost of toll and collect phone calls or at $.10 per minute for calls. If claiming the actual cost of calls, a receipt or a copy of the phone bill indicating calls for which reimbursement is sought must be attached to the claim form.
- Postage expenses – Reimbursed for the actual cost of ordinary and necessary postage.
- Parking expenses – Reimbursed for the actual cost. A receipt is required if parking expenses exceed $2.00 per day.

- Faxes – The cost of receiving a fax is limited to $.10 per page. Reimbursement is not provided for sending a fax unless there is a long-distance phone charge associated with it. If an outside vendor is paid to send or receive a fax, a receipt showing the actual amount paid must be submitted.
- Other expenses – The cost of lodging and meals is reimbursed based on state employee rates. The cost of a client evaluation, a shorthand reporter, investigation, interpreter, or expert witness may also be reimbursed if the attorney obtains a court order authorizing the expenses prior to being incurred.

SPD adopted revised administrative rules which were effective July 30, 2014. The revised administrative rules increased some of the reimbursement rates.

The Office of Auditor of State issued a report on a special investigation of SPD on July 18, 2013 which identified improper disbursements to a contract attorney practicing in northwest Iowa. The report identified payments to the attorney for which he claimed more than 12 hours in a single day, including 80 days for which he claimed 24 hours or more. The report also identified payments to the attorney for mileage claimed to the same destination for multiple cases in a single day.

Because of the nature of the concerns that led to the report, SPD reviewed the number of claims submitted by and the amounts paid to other contract attorneys. SPD also reviewed claims submitted by certain contract attorneys to analyze the number of hours and mileage reported for each day. From this analysis, 14 additional attorneys whose claims merited further review were identified. The attorneys include Dennis Mathahs, Richard Buffington, Jennifer Meyer, Joanie Grife, Matthew Noel and the following 9 attorneys who practiced with the law firm Pargulski, Hauser, and Clarke, P.L.L.C.: David Pargulski, Jason Hauser, Steven Clarke, Jane White, Jeremy Evans, Katharine Strickler, Magdalena Reese, Laura Lockwood, and Nathaniel Tagtow. (Jennifer Meyer was previously known as Jennifer Steffens. She will be referred to as Jennifer Meyer throughout this report.)

As a result of the concerns identified by SPD representatives, we performed the procedures detailed in the Auditor of State's Report for certain claims submitted.

Detailed Findings

These procedures identified $311,182.93 of disbursements to certain attorneys who billed the State Public Defender's Office for more than 12 hours in a single day, improperly claimed mileage, or received other improper payments. We were unable to determine if additional amounts were improperly disbursed to those attorneys for claims submitted prior to the periods specified and because certain claims were not readily available. We were also unable to determine if specific activities claimed by the attorneys for payment, such as phone calls, research and preparing documents, were accurately reported on the claims and billing statements reviewed. In addition, we were unable to determine whether the length of time the attorneys reported was reasonable for each case.

The disbursements identified include $266,436.00 paid to the attorneys for 1,142 days for which they claimed more than 12 hours in a single day. The disbursements identified include only the amount paid to the attorneys for more than 12 hours for a single day. Of this amount, $45,582.00 was paid to 6 attorneys for 50 days for which they were paid for 24 hours or more in a single day.

The disbursements identified also include $41,344.93 of mileage improperly paid to the attorneys. We identified 1,588 trips claimed for 750 days for which the attorneys claimed mileage multiple times to the same destination. The mileage claimed by the attorneys other than Ms. Lockwood, Ms. Meyer, and Ms. Grife was not allocated among the cases. Instead, the attorneys claimed the full amount of mileage for each case as if the case was the only one for which they traveled to the destination that day.

We identified instances for which Ms. Lockwood, Ms. Meyer, and Ms. Grife properly split mileage costs among cases for a single trip. However, we also identified instances in which they did not properly allocate their mileage costs. In some instances where the mileage costs were split, the related claim was a duplicate for a trip for which they were previously reimbursed.

The improper disbursements identified also include $3,402.00 paid to an attorney for meetings or hearings he did not attend and days he reported he was in court in excess of 8 hours per day. All findings are summarized in Exhibit A and a detailed explanation of each finding follows.

BILLED HOURS WHICH WERE PAID TO ATTORNEYS

As stated previously, claims are to be submitted after the conclusion of the case along with required paperwork, including a claim form, signed order appointing counsel, an itemized list of services performed and a copy of any court order authorizing additional expenses as necessary.

We reviewed available claims the selected attorneys were paid for between July 1, 2009 and August 31, 2013. Examples of claims submitted by Mr. Mathahs, Mr. Buffington, the Pargulski, Hauser, and Clarke, P.L.L.C. law firm, the Steffens (Meyer) & Grife, P.C. law firm, and The Noel Law Firm, P.C. are included in Appendices 1 through 5, respectively. The related billing statements are also included in the Appendices. As illustrated by the Appendices, the claims include a case number, client name, a summary of the hours spent by the attorney, any paralegal hours, the hourly rate claimed and the total amount claimed. The claim also states when the attorney was appointed to the case. Also, as illustrated by the Appendices, the claims may include a single case or multiple cases.

The claims are also accompanied by a billing statement which summarizes all activity for the case. As illustrated by the Appendices, the billing statements include the various dates the attorney worked on the case, a brief description of the services performed and the number of hours, or portion of an hour, claimed by the attorney. The billing statements also include costs incurred, such as for copies, postage and mileage.

During our review of claims submitted by the attorneys selected for testing, we determined SPD representatives periodically reduced the number of hours reported on the billing statements during the claim review process completed prior to payment. For our testing purposes, we used the reduced number of hours for which the attorneys were paid. We did not use the number of hours initially reported by the attorneys.

Using the claims and billing statements the attorneys submitted, which included the reductions made by SPD representatives, we summarized the number of hours reported, the cases for which the hours were reported, and any related mileage costs for the selected attorneys.

We sorted the information from the claims and billing statements by the date the attorneys reported they performed services for the cases assigned to them. When the information from each attorney's billing statements was sorted in this manner, we were able to identify all cases for which each attorney submitted a claim for services performed on any given date. With the sorted information, we were able to identify days for which an excessive number of hours were charged. SPD officials were unable to readily identify dates for which the attorneys reported an excessive number of hours because the claims and billing statements submitted were not inclusive of all cases which the attorneys claimed they worked on for any specific day.

Exhibits B through Exhibit L list the specific dates for which the attorneys reported they worked more than 12 hours in a single day, with subtotals for 24 or more hours reported, at least 20 but less than 24 hours reported, more than 15 hours but less than 20 hours reported and more than 12 hours but not more than 15 hours reported.

Table 3 summarizes the number of days each attorney was paid for more than 12 hours. As illustrated by the Table, 6 attorneys were paid for 50 days for which they claimed 24 hours or more in a single day, and they were paid for 90 days for which they claimed at least 20 but less than 24 hours in a single day. Also, 10 attorneys were paid for 390 days for which they claimed more than 15 but less than 20 hours in a single day and 11 attorneys were paid for 612 days for which they claimed more than 12 hours but not more than 15 hours in a single day.

We did not identify any days for which billings submitted by Jeremy Evans, Magdalena Reese, and Katharine Strickler totaled more than 12 hours. As a result, no payments to these attorneys are included in Exhibit A.

Table 4 includes the number of days the attorneys were paid for more than 12 hours, the total number of days for which they reported services were provided and the percentage of days for which each attorney was paid for more than 12 hours.

Total	1,142	12,110

* - Determined based on claims paid to the attorneys from July 1, 2009 through August 31, 2013.

As illustrated by the Table, Jennifer Meyer claimed and was paid for 317 days for which she reported 12 hours or more in a single day. Mr. Hauser, Mr. Buffington, and Mr. Mathahs were also paid for more than 12 hours in a day for 16.56%, 12.60%, and 11.21% of the total days for which they submitted claims, respectively. The other attorneys reviewed were paid for more than 12 hours for less than 10% of the days for which they submitted claims. While Mr. Evans, Ms. Reese, and Ms. Strickler were not paid for any days of more than 12 hours, they were included in the Table to illustrate the total number of days for which they received payment.

Based on the description of services included in the billing statements, we determined several services provided involved court dates and meetings with other officials, such as the County Attorney, representatives from the Department of Human Services, and guardians ad litem. The attorneys also reported meeting with or having phone conversations with clients, performing research, and preparing for pre-trial conferences and hearings. While some of these functions can be performed outside normal office hours, it is unlikely the attorneys consistently performed these services during the evening or for extended periods.

The billing claims and statements from the Pargulski, Hauser, and Clarke P.L.L.C. law firm listed more than one attorney per claim. According to SPD representatives, this is not unusual because attorneys routinely assist each other on cases. For example, on a claim paid May 24, 2012, the firm was paid for 13.9 hours for work performed by Mr. Pargulski from July 2011 through January 2012. However, 2.3 hours billed for Mr. Pargulski was actually for work performed by Mr. Tagtow. We were able to identify which attorney performed specific tasks because the billing claims submitted had a column identifying the attorney by their initials for each task performed. Because of the overlap of attorneys on individual claims, we summarized billings for the Pargulski, Hauser, and Clarke P.L.L.C. law firm on a firm-wide basis with designations for which attorney performed a task on a particular day. Once the firm-wide information was summarized, we split out billings for the individual attorneys to determine the number of hours billed for each attorney for particular days.

It is not possible for any single attorney to work more than 24 hours in a single day. Based on the types of cases for which the attorneys billed SPD and the types of functions reported by the attorneys, it is unlikely any attorney consistently worked more than 12 hours per day. Because it is not likely they would work more than 12 hours per day for the days billed for services, we calculated the amount paid to the attorneys for more than 12 hours per day for the days identified and consider the total to be excessive. Our calculations, which are summarized in Table 5, are conservative.

Exhibits B through L list the excess pay the attorneys received for the days they were paid for more than 12 hours, with subtotals for the days the attorneys reported 24 or more hours, at least 20 hours but less than 24 hours, more than 15 hours but less than 20 hours, and more than 12 hours but not more than 15 hours. Table 5 and Exhibit A summarize these subtotals.

As stated previously, attorney claims included billing statements which described activities for each case assigned. We were unable to determine which specific services if any, the attorneys reported but did not actually perform because independent documentation was not readily available for our review. Types of activities on the billings included:

- Phone Calls - The length of phone calls billed ranged from 0.1 – 1.3 hours, or 6 to 78 minutes. We were not able to verify the time recorded for phone calls because phone records were not readily available. By reviewing the billing statements submitted, we identified phone calls were frequently reported and the length of the phone calls did not appear excessive. However, we were not able to determine the reasonableness of the total amount of time reported for the phone calls.
- Research and Preparing - The length of time for researching or preparing and reviewing documents ranged from 0.1 to 0.4 hours, or 6 to 24 minutes. We were not able to obtain the specific documents prepared or reviewed, but unusual amounts of time were not identified during our review of the billing claims. However, we were not able to determine the reasonableness of the total amount of time reported for research and preparation.
- After-hours Activities – The length of time for Family Team Meetings and Home Visits varied greatly between attorneys. We were not able to verify the time recorded for these activities because detailed documentation was not available for review. By reviewing the billing statements submitted, the length of the meetings and visits did not seem excessive. However, we were not able to determine the reasonableness of the total amount of time reported for Family Team Meetings and Home Visits.

During our testing, concerns were brought to our attention regarding specific time Mr. Noel reported in the claims he submitted. The concerns are discussed in detail in the following paragraphs.

- Family Team Meetings – According to the State Public Defender, an attorney reported to him Mr. Noel frequently did not attend family team meetings for cases to which he was assigned.

Family team meetings are a process in which family, relatives, friends, and professionals meet to develop a plan to ensure children are properly cared for and protected. Participants in family team meetings typically involve parents of a juvenile, any supporting family and/or friends of the family, representatives from the Department of Human Services (DHS), representatives from agencies which contract with DHS, and Family Team Meeting Facilitators. Participants also frequently include attorneys who represent the interest of the parents or are a guardian ad litem. As an attorney, Mr. Noel was invited to family team meetings as the defense attorney for a parent or as the guardian ad litem of the juvenile.

We identified a number of dates for which Mr. Noel reported he attended a family team meeting for certain cases. We provided the dates and case information to representatives of DHS who obtained notes for 38 family team meetings from departmental files. The notes were provided to us for our review. Our findings are summarized below.

- The notes for 7 of the 38 team meetings specify Mr. Noel attended the meeting.
- The notes for 4 of the 38 meetings did not list Mr. Noel in attendance, even though others were specified. The time reported by Mr. Noel for these 4 meetings totaled 5.4 hours and he was paid $324.00 for them.
- The notes for 7 of the 38 meetings specifically stated Mr. Noel did not attend even though he was invited. The time reported by Mr. Noel for these 7 meetings totaled 8.7 hours and he was paid $522.00 for them.

- o For the remaining 20 team meetings reported by Mr. Noel, DHS was not able to provide meeting notes for the dates and cases specified. This indicates a family team meeting was not held for the cases on the dates Mr. Noel reported. The time reported by Mr. Noel for these 20 meetings totaled 25.3 hours and he was paid $1,518.00 for them.

The meeting notes provided by DHS are “cumulative” in nature. They include notations from all meetings held for the family. In some instances, the meeting notes for the case document there was not a meeting between the date of the meeting prior to the date Mr. Noel reported and the meetings held subsequent to the date he reported. For other dates Mr. Noel reported, DHS officials provided a written statement a meeting was not held on the date reported.

The $2,364.00 paid to Mr. Noel for the meetings he did not attend or the meetings which were not held is included in the other improper payments in Exhibit A.

- Time Charged on Court Days – During our review of the billings Mr. Noel submitted, we identified 14 days for which he reported more than 8 hours of time for attending various court proceedings. Because of other administrative duties, courts rarely exceed 8 hours per day for routine hearings such as initial appearances, pretrial conferences, plea hearings, and sentencing.

For 9 of the 14 days identified, the description of services provided by Mr. Noel stated “prepare for and attend” a certain type of hearing. Because the billings did not specify which portion of the billings was for “preparing for” and which portion was for “attending” the various hearings, we are unable to determine how much time he reported for court time.

The descriptions and times reported by Mr. Noel for the remaining 5 days identified are summarized by day in Table 6.

Table 6

Reported by Mr. Noel
Date	Description	Number of Cases	Number of Hours	Amount Paid
09/15/11	Attend pretrial conf	6	10.6	$ 636.00
10/06/11	Attend plea and pretrial conf	6	11.4	684.00
11/17/11	Attend final pretrial, plea, pretrial conf, and sentencing	7	10.5	630.00
01/05/12	Attend pretrial conf, probation revocation hearing and sentencing	7	10.6	636.00
02/09/12	Attend initial conf, initial pretrial, plea, and sentencing	6	8.5	510.00
07/12/12	Attend arraignment and pretrial conf	6	8.2	492.00
07/19/12	Attend arraignment, plea, sentencing, and pretrial conf	5	9.1	546.00
Total		43	68.9	$ 4,134.00

As illustrated by the Table, Mr. Noel was paid $4,134.00 for the 7 days. If he had reported only 8 hours per day for the time he spent in court, he would have been paid $3,360.00. The $774.00 additional amount paid to Mr. Noel for these 7 days is included in the other improper payments in Exhibit A.

- Dubuque County Preliminary Hearings – We determined the time Mr. Noel reported he spent in court included time for attending preliminary hearings for Dubuque County cases. According to the State Public Defender, as a matter of routine, preliminary hearings are not held in Dubuque County. In place of having a preliminary hearing, the Dubuque County Attorney’s Office routinely elects to submit trial information and minutes of testimony. We confirmed this with officials in the Dubuque County Attorney’s Office and the Dubuque Office of the State Public Defender. According to the individuals we spoke with, this practice has been in place for a number of years and would include the whole fiscal year 2012 through fiscal year 2014 period for which we reviewed the claims paid to Mr. Noel.

By reviewing the billings submitted by Mr. Noel, we identified 6 instances for which he reported he listed a preliminary hearing for a Dubuque County case. We reviewed Iowa Courts Online records for the cases specified by Mr. Noel. For the dates and cases in Dubuque County for which Mr. Noel specified he attended a preliminary hearing, the online court records specify trial information and minutes of testimony were received but not that a preliminary hearing was held.

For the 6 instances identified, Mr. Noel was paid $264.00. This amount is included in the other improper payments in Exhibit A.

The $2,364.00 of improper payments for the family team meetings, $774.00 of improper payments to Mr. Noel for time he reported in court in excess of 8 hours per day, and $264.00 for the preliminary hearings for Dubuque County cases total $3,402.00. This is included in the other improper payments in Exhibit A.

DUPLICATE MILEAGE PAYMENTS

Mileage claimed by contract attorneys is reimbursed at the rate of $.35 per mile. In order for mileage to be reimbursed, the number of miles driven and the related case number must be itemized on the claim form, but the SPD does not require the attorneys to document the specific date, destination, or the reason for the trip.

The attorneys reported traveling within the counties their offices were located, surrounding counties and other locations. We reviewed all claims submitted by the 14 attorneys selected for review to determine the propriety of the number of miles reported. During our review, we identified 750 days for which the attorneys charged 2 cases or more for travel to the same location on the same date. The number of days identified are summarized in Table 7.

Table 7

Richard Buffington	O	134
Jennifer Meyer and Joanie Grife	P	162
Pargulski, Hauser, and Clarke, P.L.L.C.	Q	149
Total		750

Exhibits M through Q summarize the claim number and the date the claim was submitted for each instance identified. The Exhibits also include information from the billing statements, such as the case number, date of travel, destination, a description of the travel, and the related cost. As illustrated by the Exhibits, the attorneys did not report the trips to the same destination on a single claim. The trips were often reported on different claims. For some of the duplicate trips identified, the claims were submitted within the same month. For other trips, the claims were submitted more than a year apart.

Exhibits M through Q illustrate all of the attorneys claimed the miles on a “round trip” basis for each trip reported. They did not report traveling from their office to a destination and then to a second destination before returning to their office. Instead, the attorneys reported multiple round trips on a single day. For example, Mr. Mathahs reported 4 round trips from Iowa County to Cedar County on September 18, 2009 on 3 separate claims. We classified 3 of the round trips to Cedar County as improper. He also reported 2 round trips from Iowa County to Muscatine County on September 18, 2009. We classified 1 of the round trips to Muscatine County as improper. While it would be unusual for someone to return to Iowa County between each destination, we did not classify the 2 separate round trips to Cedar and Muscatine Counties as improper.

For the instances in which the attorneys traveled to the same destination on the same day for multiple cases, the related cost should have been allocated to the applicable cases. To determine which amount claimed was a duplicate of a prior payment, we considered the date the related claims were prepared by SPD for payment.

We also considered the number of miles claimed for each trip. For round trips of more than 60 miles, we allowed travel to the same destination only once per day. For round trips of 60 miles or less, we accepted the first and second trip to a single destination as reasonable because an attorney could feasibly make a round-trip of 60 miles or less in the morning and a second trip in the afternoon. However, we classified subsequent trips to the same destination on the same day as improper.

When SPD officials initially identified concerns regarding claims submitted by certain attorneys, they requested explanations and/or additional information from the attorneys. In response, Mr. Mathahs submitted a summary of the trips for which he claimed mileage. In the summary, he identified the second and subsequent trips claimed to the same destination on the same day as improper and he reimbursed SPD for those trips. As a result, we used the same methodology to evaluate the trips Mr. Mathahs reported.

At the request of SPD, Mr. Clarke, Mr. Tagtow, Ms. Lockwood, Ms. White, Ms. Reese, and Ms. Strickler also submitted information for certain trips for which they claimed mileage. Each of the 6 attorneys identified trips for which they reimbursed SPD. The trips for which they provided reimbursements are identified in Exhibit Q.

The billing statements Mr. Noel submitted frequently did not include the destination for the dates for which he reported he incurred mileage. However, he routinely reported 122 or 150 miles for cases assigned to him from Clinton County and 65 miles for cases assigned to him from Jackson County. Because Mr. Noel’s office was in Dubuque, we compared the distance from Dubuque to the county seats of Clinton and Jackson Counties and determined the number of miles Mr. Noel reported was reasonable. As a result, we evaluated the mileage reimbursements paid to Mr. Noel based on the distance from Dubuque to the appropriate county seat.

We identified $41,344.93 of excess mileage paid to the attorneys for trips to the same destination on the same day which were reported on multiple claims. Table 8 summarizes the amounts paid to each attorney for duplicate mileage claims. The duplicate mileage claims are included in Exhibit A as improper disbursements.

Table 8

Attorney	Exhibit	Number of Duplicate Trips	Improper Mileage Paid
Matthew Noel	M	460	$ 12,333.45
Dennis Mathahs	N	251	11,963.70
Richard Buffington	O	387	6,907.95
Jennifer Meyer	P	147	2,768.55

Laura Lockwood	Q	42	1,064.70

Total		1,588	$ 41,344.93

We also tested mileage reimbursements to Mr. Evans and did not identify any duplicate mileage claims. As a result, Mr. Evans is not included in Table 8 or Exhibit A.

We were unable to determine the propriety of all mileage payments to Ms. Grife and Ms. Meyer because they each submitted claims which included only the total number of miles without any additional information regarding the dates of travel, destination and/or number of miles per trip. The 97 claims submitted by Ms. Grife and Ms. Meyer included 12,574.60 miles for which we were unable to determine the propriety of the mileage claimed. If the 97 claims had included additional information, it is possible we would have identified additional duplicate mileage payments.

We also identified 14 instances for which Ms. Meyer and Ms. Grife reported mileage to a destination which greatly exceeded the mileage they typically reported for the same destination. The excess miles totaled 1,004.94 for which $351.73 was paid to Ms. Meyer and Ms. Grife. Because we were unable to verify the actual distances traveled by Ms. Meyer and Ms. Grife, we have not included the additional $351.73 for mileage in Exhibit A as improper disbursements.

In addition, we identified a claim Ms. Meyer submitted which included a day she recorded 2 trips to Tama County for the same client, but for different court case numbers. Because the mileage for the 2 trips was claimed 6 months apart, SPD staff members did not identify the double billing for the same client to the same destination on the same day. The duplicate payment is included in Exhibits A and P as an improper payment.

Administrative rules in place at the time the claims were submitted did not require mileage be listed on the day it occurred or additional details. However, SPD officials have adopted revised administrative rules which will require a greater level of detail for mileage and other expenses. SPD prepared and issued a summary of the revised rules. A copy is included in Appendix 6.

ATTORNEY EXPLANATIONS

At the beginning of SPD's review process, attorneys who had submitted billings for what appeared to be unusually large numbers of hours were contacted by SPD regarding their billing practices. The attorneys were required to respond with explanations regarding their billings. According to documentation we reviewed, if the attorneys did not respond in a timely manner, SPD planned to cancel the attorney's contract with the SPD for indigent defense cases.

After we began testing attorney billings for hours and mileage charges, we received written correspondence from Mr. Mathahs offering explanations for his duplicate mileage payments and days with hours in excess of 12 hours. In Mr. Mathahs' written correspondence, he asserted the overbilled hours and duplicate mileage charges were a result of his secretary's actions and her lack of attention to detail regarding dictated billings. Mr. Mathahs acknowledged he signed the inaccurate claims and he was ultimately responsible for their accuracy even though he did not effectively review the claims for accuracy prior to submitting the claims to SPD for payment. We also held a phone interview with Mr. Mathahs on January 13, 2014, during which he reiterated his position and explanations contained in his written correspondence.

The other attorneys we contacted declined to meet with us or provide additional explanations. However, they referred us to the written responses they provided to SPD and stated they had nothing else to add to those explanations.

We reviewed the correspondence provided to SPD by the attorneys. Upon reviewing the correspondence, we identified 2 recurring explanations for the excess hours billed and duplicate mileage payments. Those explanations were secretaries were directed to split the mileage between clients but did not and hours were coded to the day they were entered into the billing software and not the day the work was performed.

In addition, Mr. Noel's explanation was he billed full round-trips for each client he met with because that was the industry-standard practice when he was a journeymen electrician and it was the direction he received when he started at his previous law firm. Mr. Noel's explanation stated he became aware he was billing mileage incorrectly on June 19, 2013 when he attended Mr. Langholz's presentation at the Iowa Public Defender Association Summer Conference. However, he made no attempt to contact SPD and correct his previous billing claims or reimburse improper mileage paid to him. Mr. Noel claimed he submitted correct mileage charges for claims submitted after attending the Summer Conference. However, as illustrated by Exhibit N, we identified claims paid to Mr. Noel after June 30, 2013 which did not include a proper allocation of his mileage costs.

Regardless of these explanations, the attorneys signed the claims as being true and accurate representations of the hours worked and the expenses incurred when they were not.

REPAYMENTS TO SPD

After they were contacted by SPD regarding their billing practices, Mr. Mathahs, Ms. Strickler, Mr. Clarke, Ms. White, Ms. Reese, and Mr. Tagtow repaid SPD for a portion of the payments they received. According to SPD, the repayments were for excess mileage billings and other expenses on claims submitted by the attorneys and paid by SPD. Mr. Mathahs reviewed all of his billings for mileage, based on a listing provided by SPD, and calculated the amount he needed to repay based on his own judgment and notes. Ms. Strickler, Mr. Clarke, Ms. White, Ms. Reese, and Mr. Tagtow relied on information provided by SPD and repaid the amount provided to them by SPD. The repayments are summarized in Table 9. As of the release of this report, none of the other attorneys reviewed have submitted repayments to SPD.

^ - We were unable to verify the accuracy of any expenses claimed other than mileage.

At the time of our fieldwork, claims the attorneys submitted during the second half of fiscal year 2013 had not been paid and were being held by SPD pending the outcome of this investigation and an internal review. As a result, duplicate trips and time in excess of 12 hours per day reported on those claims, if any, were not subject to testing. Had the claims been paid, it is possible the amounts identified as excessive in this report would be greater.

RECOMMENDED CONTROL PROCEDURES

As part of our investigation, we reviewed the procedures used by the State Public Defender's Office to review claims, respond to inquiries, and issue payments. An important aspect of internal controls is to establish procedures which provide a level of assurance errors or irregularities will be noted within a reasonable amount of time during the course of normal operations and attorneys will be accountable for claims submitted.

- A. Reviewing Claims – Claims should typically be submitted by contract attorneys at the conclusion of each case, but may be paid at interim points for juvenile, appellate and Class A felony cases. Because some cases extended over lengthy periods, claims may include time spent by the attorney and/or a paralegal over months, or even longer. It is not unusual for a particular day to be reported on a number of claims.

SPD does not have a process in place to determine the total number of hours reported by contract attorneys for any given day. As a result, SPD was not able to monitor total hours reported per day or determine the propriety of the number of hours reported for each day. Because each claim is reviewed separately, SPD staff are unable to identify when an excessive number of hours are reported for a particular day.

Recommendation – SPD should continue to review individual claims to ensure the propriety of the number of hours reported by contract attorneys. In addition to reviewing individual claims, SPD should implement procedures which ensure the cumulative amount reported for individual days on various claims is reasonable.

SPD should also continue to periodically analyze the total hours claimed by all contract attorneys to determine if any unusual activity is identified and perform appropriate follow up.

- B. Mileage - Contract attorneys are required to submit a claim for time spent on a case and related expenses at completion of the case. Because some cases extended over numerous months, claims may include costs, such as mileage, incurred over months, or even longer. In addition, it is not unusual for a particular day to be reported on a number of claims.

SPD does not have a process in place to determine if trips to the same destination on the same day were reported multiple times. As a result, it was not able to monitor total hours reported per day or determine the propriety of the number of hours reported. Because each claim is reviewed separately, SPD staff are unable to identify when mileage reimbursement requests are duplicated.

Recommendation – SPD should implement procedures which ensure the trips reported by contract attorneys are monitored and reviewed for propriety and ensure they are not duplicated.

In addition, SPD should implement procedures to analyze the costs claimed by contract attorneys to determine if any unusual costs are identified and appropriately follow up on any unusual costs identified.

- C. Claim Support - During our review of claims paid to certain attorneys, we determined there was not any itemized support for mileage claims. Mileage was only summarized in total on the claim form. The detailed billing statement did not include the date of travel, destination, and number of miles per trip. As a result, we were unable to determine the reasonableness of the mileage paid for these claims.

Administrative rules for indigent defense claims did not require mileage reimbursements to be itemized or indicate the date of travel, destination, or number of miles traveled per trip. The administrative rules only required the mileage be summarized on the claim form.

Current Status - SPD officials have adopted revised administrative rules to require more specific documentation for mileage reimbursements.

Office of State Public Defender

OFFICE OF THE
STATE PUBLIC DEFENDER

TERRY E. BRANSTAD, GOVERNOR
KIM REYNOLDS, LT. GOVERNOR
SAMUEL P. LANGHOLZ, STATE PUBLIC DEFENDER

Summary of Adopted Rules
Addressing Improper Attorney Billing Practices

1. Prohibits attorneys from billing more than 16 hours a day in the aggregate, and permits billing 12-16 hours only in limited circumstances and with a written explanation.
2. Prohibits estimated and standardized billing by attorneys.
3. Requires that attorneys split mileage expense among all clients for whom the mileage was travelled and prohibits billing mileage in full for every client.
4. Requires additional detail on claims itemizations:
 - Description of origin and destination for all mileage
 - Itemization of whenever another attorney performs work
 - Daily itemization of copying, postage, fax expense, and telephone calls
5. Requires all itemizations to be reported in tenths of an hour and requires rounding up or down to the nearest tenth of an hour.
6. Limits use of a substitute attorney to only court hearings with which the appointed has a legitimate scheduling conflict and prohibits use of substitute attorney for trials and most out-of-court services.
7. Establishes new procedure for claims by an attorney whose contract is terminated for improper billing practices: returning all pending claims to attorney and only authorizing payment if attorney resubmits with independent, written documentation originating from a source other than the attorney that supports all time billed.

Other Notable Claims Rules Updates

The proposed rules include a complete reorganization and stylistic revisions to improve clarity, simplicity, and precision. Of particular note, the proposal:

1. Increases current mileage rate ($0.35) to be consistent with state employee rate ($0.39).
2. Adopts new expanded, reasonable exceptions to 45-day "date of service" rule for the deaths or serious illness, injury, or medical condition of the attorney or immediate family members cared for by attorney.

3. Clarifies payable travel time, including the addition of travel to all appellate oral arguments and travel to family team meetings outside the county of the case with court approval.
4. Requires full itemization in all appellate cases, ending “voluntary flat rate” and eliminating the distinct procedures for contract and non-contract appellate claims.
5. Eliminates change-of-employment interim claims.
6. Eliminates requirement for attorney or other vendor to notify clerk of payment errors.
7. Clarifies rates and procedures for transcription of an audio or video recording by a certified shorthand reporter.
8. Updates the requirements for claims under chapter 600A to reflect recent statutory changes.
