

Clark W. Huntley

ISSN 0003-4827

No known copyright restrictions.

---

Recommended Citation

"Clark W. Huntley." The Annals of Iowa 29 (1948), 411-411.

Available at: <http://ir.uiowa.edu/annals-of-iowa/vol29/iss5/23>

Hosted by Iowa Research Online

CLARK W. HUNTLEY, teacher, farmer and legislator, died at Des Moines, Iowa, March 1, 1948; born in Lucas county, Iowa, May 26, 1866, his parents both being descendants of Revolutionary ancestors; raised on a farm; educated in rural schools and the Chariton academy, later attending the Institute of Technology at Chicago; served as a teacher in Lucas county schools and became manager of the municipal lighting plant at Chariton; engaged for a number of years in farming and livestock raising; married in 1895 to Anna L. Campbell to whom were born five children; served as secretary of the school board and as township clerk, also in the Iowa house of representatives, elected in 1910 and re-elected in 1912; was the first Farm Bureau president in Lucas county, and later a vice president of the Iowa Farm Bureau Federation and a member of Iowa Soil Conservation committee, of which he was chairman at the time of his death; a Republican and survived by two daughters, Mrs. Mary Larson, Chariton, and Mrs. Nancy Fuller, Des Moines, and one son, Mark Huntley, Guthrie Center, Iowa.

---

KARL VOLLMER, oculist and aurist, died at Davenport, Iowa, February 19, 1948; born also at Davenport, the son of Henry and Dorothea Plambeck Vollmer, November 20, 1869; graduated in 1892 from the State University of Iowa college of medicine; continued his studies in Vienna, Austria, for a year, and later served on the staff of the Royal Ophthalmic hospital in London, England for six months before returning to Davenport to begin his practice, which continued as an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist until about three years ago, having observed his fiftieth year in the medical profession in 1942; affiliated with medical organizations, local banks, professional and business institutions, and deeply interested in the Citizens Historical association; a brother of Henry Vollmer, attorney, who was mayor and congressman and died a few years ago; married to Paula Koehler in Davenport, December 1, 1897, who survives with a son, Karl K. Vollmer of St. Louis, Missouri.

---

ADDISON CAREY PAGE, physician, died at Mason City, Iowa, April 14, 1948; born at New Sharon, Iowa, October 3, 1874, the son of Dr. Homer R. and Harriet Freister Page, the family moving to Des Moines when he was two years old; educated in the Des Moines schools and received a B.A. degree at Des Moines Baptist college in 1895 and was graduated from the University of Illinois College of Medicine in 1898; served eighteen months internship at Cook county hospital in Chicago, Illinois; went with the Guggenheim foundation to Mexico in 1900 serving there as chief surgeon in a mining organization; returned to Des Moines in 1902 and entered upon a long career in medicine, continuing until two years ago

Copyright of Annals of Iowa is the property of State of Iowa, by & through the State Historical Society of Iowa and its content may not be copied or emailed to multiple sites or posted to a listserv without the copyright holder's express written permission. However, users may print, download, or email articles for individual use.