

Necrology of Notable Iowans ...

ISSN 0003-4827

No known copyright restrictions.

---

Recommended Citation

"Necrology of Notable Iowans ..." The Annals of Iowa 36 (1961), 73-79.

Available at: <http://ir.uiowa.edu/annals-of-iowa/vol36/iss1/10>

Hosted by Iowa Research Online

charge in December, 1918, graduating from Princeton in 1920; entered law school at the State University of Iowa, was associate editor of the Iowa Law Review and received his law degree in 1922; became a partner with his father in the Bloomfield law firm of H. C. and H. C. Taylor, and continued the practice after the latter's death in 1934; married to Mrs. Opal Lorenz Hotchkiss at Bloomfield, July 12, 1928; served as Bloomfield city attorney, 1936-1939, president of the school board, 1937-1938, and took a leading role in civic affairs, being instrumental in the construction of Lake Fisher; elected judge of the Second Judicial District in November, 1938, assumed his duties January 1, 1939, and had been on the district bench twenty-two years; was the owner of two Davis County farms, president of the Davis County Republican Company, a director of Nock-on-Wood, Inc., chairman of the Davis County War Chest and Bond Sales drives for three years during World War II, president of the Second Judicial District Bar Association, 1944, Bloomfield Rotary Club, 1939, member of the Davis County, Iowa State, and American Bar Associations, Masonic order, Elks, American Legion, and Methodist church; survived by his wife, a son, Heinrich C. Taylor, Jr., Des Moines, and a stepson, Robert Hotchkiss, Cedar Rapids.

---

FRED C. LOVRIEN, retired judge, attorney, and former state legislator, died in Long Beach, Mississippi, March 20, 1961; born on a farm in Humboldt County, Iowa, July 26, 1875, the son of Frank and Agnes Lovrien; graduated from the State University of Iowa law school in 1897, began the practice of law at Humboldt in June of that year, and later was a partner in the firm of Lovrien & Lovrien with his brother, Frank S. Lovrien; married to Jennie Bell French, November 30, 1901; elected a Republican member of the state legislature in November, 1922, served as Humboldt county representative in the 40th, 40th extra, 41st, 42nd, 42nd extra, and 43rd sessions of the General Assembly; co-authored the Lovrien-Brookhart law creating a state sinking fund for public deposits in closed banks, was an able floor leader, member of the Joint Legislative Committee on tax revision and tenth district member of the Republican State Central Committee; resigned August 27, 1929 to accept an appointment by Governor John Hammill as judge of the Fourteenth Judicial District succeeding Daniel F. Coyle; remained on the bench four years before returning to his law practice, and had made his home in Spirit Lake since his retirement in 1945; was a member of the Baptist Church; survived by his wife, four daughters, Mrs. Carol Hope Matty, Tucson, Arizona, Mrs. Alice Mahon, Minneapolis, Minnesota, Mrs. Gladys Lasser, Moline, Illinois, Mrs. Frieda Howell, Jopez, Kentucky, and a son, Arthur Lovrien, Spirit Lake.

---

GUY GOLDTHORPE BUTLER, state senator, farm owner, bank executive, and former dentist, died in Des Moines, April 12, 1961; born at Beattie, Kansas, March 5, 1887, the son of William S. and Ellen Rosamond Goldthorpe Butler; moved with his parents to a farm north of Rolfe, Copyright of Annals of Iowa is the property of State of Iowa, by & through the State Historical Society of Iowa and its content may not be copied or emailed to multiple sites or posted to a listserv without the copyright holder's express written permission. However, users may print, download, or email articles for individual use.