

Iowa's Notable Dead ...

ISSN 0003-4827

No known copyright restrictions.

Recommended Citation

"Iowa's Notable Dead ..." The Annals of Iowa 33 (1956), 304-312.

Available at: <http://ir.uiowa.edu/annals-of-iowa/vol33/iss4/11>

Hosted by Iowa Research Online

admitted to the bar of Michigan in 1902, and began practice of law at Lansing; moved to Cheyenne, Wyoming in 1902; married Fanny Borst, October 16, 1907; served as city attorney of Cheyenne, 1908-1911; as assistant U.S. district attorney of the district of Wyoming, 1911-1912; appointed judge of district court of Wyoming, 1922, later elected to same office for term 1922-1928; appointed justice of the supreme court of Wyoming by the governor, 1928, later elected to the same office for term 1928-34, reelected for term 1935-42, became chief justice, Jan. 1939-1943; reelected to the same court for terms 1943-51, 1951-59; chief justice 1947-51; a member of the Congregational church, the Masonic bodies and a Phi Beta Kappa; survived by the widow, a son, William Alden, and a daughter, Mary Edith Riner.

FRANK D. MARTIN, printer, sheriff and legislator, died at Davenport, Iowa, November 10, 1955; born at Atchison, Kansas, February 24, 1884; attended Guthrie, Oklahoma schools; became a semi-professional baseball player; married to Molly Paulson in Davenport in 1915, who died a year later; again married July 29, 1926, to Edna R. Schmidt in Macomb, Illinois; resided in Davenport since 1910, when he became an employee of the Quad City Lithograph Company, remaining with that company until 1917, when he became a member of the Davenport police force, and in 1919 was appointed a deputy in the Scott county sheriff's office, serving in that capacity until 1925, when he was elected county sheriff and continued in that office until 1937, when elected on the Republican ticket to the Iowa state senate, serving three terms 1938-1949; chairman of the senate committee on labor, resigned in year last named to become manager of the state liquor store at Davenport, which position he held at time of his death; a member of the Knights of Pythias and Masonic bodies; survived by his widow and two sons, John F. and William W. of Davenport, and one daughter, Edna D. Martin, New York, N. Y., four grandchildren and a brother, George Martin, Guthrie, Oklahoma.

JOHN WILLIAM MOORE, machine works executive and legislator, died at Ontario, California, June 17, 1955; born in Nicholas county, West Virginia, March 18, 1880; son of John William Moore, Sr. and Ella Iowa (Malcolm) Moore, the latter's father being Dr. John S. Malcolm, who pioneered to Iowa in 1948, homesteaded near Mount Pleasant, and built the first brick house there, making the brick in a hand mold, the mother born in this house in 1860, and named for the state; attended public school at Cross Lanes, West Virginia, Copyright of Annals of Iowa is the property of State of Iowa, by & through the State Historical Society of Iowa and its content may not be copied or emailed to multiple sites or posted to a listserv without the copyright holder's express written permission. However, users may print, download, or email articles for individual use.