

Iowa's Notable Dead ...

ISSN 0003-4827

No known copyright restrictions.

Recommended Citation

"Iowa's Notable Dead ..." The Annals of Iowa 32 (1953), 73-80.

Available at: <http://ir.uiowa.edu/annals-of-iowa/vol32/iss1/11>

Hosted by Iowa Research Online

nell college graduate, became principal and superintendent at Knoxville, Iowa, and earned his doctor's degree from Columbia university in 1908; one of Iowa's first school men to enter upon extended professional preparation in the field of education; became head of the Alaskan division of the United States bureau of education, then held various positions in the school administration section of the bureau and became a national authority on the inter-relation of government and education; in 1923 came to Cornell from a professorship of education administration at the University of Pennsylvania, becoming the Iowa's school's sixth president; left Cornell in 1927 and then became visiting professor of educational administration at Swarthmore (Penn.) college, and later engaged as an educational consultant; wrote many articles upon educational administration and higher education in periodicals and annual reports; married Gertrude Bartholomew of Preston, Iowa, in 1901; survivors are a daughter, Dr. Ruth Updegraff, professor in the child welfare research station at the State University of Iowa; a son, Harlan, jr., Pasadena, Cal., and two grandchildren.

MILO A. MANNING, railroad official, banker and legislator, died at Ames, Iowa, April 5, 1953; born at Lanark, Carroll county, Illinois, October 16, 1860; educated in the public schools and completed a business college course at Aledo, Illinois; learned telegraphy at Clarence, Iowa, and became an extra operator and agent in 1879 for the C. & N. W. railway ultimately becoming train dispatcher at Eagle Grove and Boone, Iowa; later held like position at Rawlings, Wyoming, for the Union Pacific railway; went into the mercantile business in 1888 at Crawford, Nebraska, and later at Sheldon, Iowa; in 1903 moved to Ames, organized the Ames Savings bank and served as its cashier until 1912, when he sold his interest in that bank and organized the Commercial Savings bank, being its president for a number of years; a member of the Thirty-fifth General Assembly, city treasurer for eight years and later widely known as the assessor at Ames and retired in 1946 at the age of 85; married Clara West in Ames April 6, 1887; a republican and member of the Masonic bodies; survived by two sons, Truman of Ames and Merrill of Bayside, Long Island, New York, and a daughter, Mrs. Margaret Paustain of Ames, six grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren.

EARL W. VINCENT, lawyer, legislator and jurist, died at Guthrie Center, Iowa, May 22, 1953; born on a farm in Washington county, Iowa, near Keota, March 27, 1886; was graduated from Keota high school in 1904, from Monmouth college in 1909, and the law school of the State University of Iowa, in 1912, after which he engaged in the practice of law at Guthrie Center; married to Madge Lee in Centerville, Iowa, in 1916; was county attorney of Guthrie county from 1919 to 1922, president of the State Association of County Attorneys 1921-22; served as state representative from that county in the 40th, 40th extra and the 41st General Assemblies; became district judge in 1945 and was serving as such at the time of his demise, a member of the Presbyterian church, the Republican party and the Masonic bodies; survived by his widow and one daughter, Mrs. R. Y. Taylor of Guthrie Center; a brother, Elmer, of Keota, and three sisters, Mrs. Mae Sturgeon of Keota, Mrs. Charles Weimer of California and Grace Vincent of Keota.

HARRY MARTIN GREENE, farmer, soldier, lawyer and legislator, died at his home near Avoca, Iowa, May 19, 1953; born in the same neighborhood, September 6, 1882; the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Cass Greene; a graduate of the Avoca high school in 1900 and the University of Iowa law school in 1906, and admitted to the bar the same year; served in Company L of the 168th Infantry in World War I for 24 months in France and was wounded twice; a charter member and first commander of Fred Funston Post, American Legion at Avoca, and a member of Rainbow chapter of the Disabled Veterans of Council Bluffs; active in the Masonic order and the Elks; zealous advocate of good roads and named as member of the state highway commission, serving a four-year term ending in 1939; served previously as state representative from Pottawattamie county in the 42nd, 42nd extra, 43rd and 44th General Assemblies, a Republican and survived by his wife, Betty Greene.

Copyright of Annals of Iowa is the property of State of Iowa, by & through the State Historical Society of Iowa and its content may not be copied or emailed to multiple sites or posted to a listserv without the copyright holder's express written permission. However, users may print, download, or email articles for individual use.