1 5 "Section 1. INSTITUTIONS ADMINISTERED BY THE
1 6 DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN SERVICES LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS
1 7 AND INTENT. During the 1997 legislative interim, the 1 8 human services restructuring task force of the general
1 9 assembly visited the state institutions administered
1 10 by the department of human services. The task force
1 11 members heard from concerned parents, service
1 12 consumers, service system administrators, state and 1 13 community-based providers, advocates for the needs of 1 14 persons with disabilities, and many other persons

1 30 most desirable means of meeting the needs of persons
1 31 with disabilities. A movement from an institution-
1 32 oriented system to a community and individual-oriented
1 33 system has occurred over time while community
1 34 resources and individualized services have been
1 35 developed. The general assembly recognizes the role 1 36 of the department of human services and others in 1 37 furthering this movement. As part of this movement, 1 38 the state institutions are evolving to be state-of-
1 39 the-art service providers for persons with chronic,
1 40 complex, or difficult-to-treat conditions for which 1 41 local services are not adequately available, while
