

IOWA DROUGHT CONDITIONS AS OF SEPTEMBER 5, 2017

Drought Conditions. Below is a map detailing drought conditions for Iowa as of September 5, 2017. Conditions have improved in some areas of Iowa; however, two areas in southern Iowa are still categorized with extreme drought. The information is from the United States Drought Monitor.

Week	None	D0-D4	D1-D4	D2-D4	D3-D4	D4
Current 2017-09-05	50.32	49.68	28.15	9.96	2.26	0.00
Last Week 2017-08-29	51.85	48.15	27.62	9.55	2.27	0.00
3 Months Ago 2017-06-06	98.66	1.34	0.00	0.00	0.00	0.00
Start of Calendar Year 2016-12-27	86.11	13.89	0.00	0.00	0.00	0.00
Start of Water Year 2016-09-27	95.07	4.93	0.00	0.00	0.00	0.00
One Year Ago 2016-09-06	98.85	1.15	0.00	0.00	0.00	0.00

Intensity:

- D0 (Abnormally Dry)
- D2 (Severe Drought)
- D4 (Exceptional Drought)
- D1 (Moderate Drought)
- D3 (Extreme Drought)

Drought Information. Iowa State University Extension and Outreach has updated drought information on the Extension and Outreach website.

STAFF CONTACT: Debra Kozel (515.281.6767) deb.kozel@legis.iowa.gov