1 other state or federal laws, the peace officer may report such 2 noncompliance to the appropriate board as designated in section 3 147.13, to the investigations division of the department of 4 inspections and appeals, and to the appropriate state or 5 federal authorities.

6 EXPLANATION

7 The inclusion of this explanation does not constitute agreement with 8 the explanation's substance by the members of the general assembly.

9 This bill relates to certain civil and criminal enforcement 10 activities involving the practice of massage therapy and 11 cosmetology, and human trafficking, and provides penalties.

12 PRACTICE OF MASSAGE THERAPY AND COSMETOLOGY. The bill
13 provides that while engaged in the practice of massage therapy
14 pursuant to Code chapter 152C or cosmetology pursuant to 15 Code chapter 157, a person who is licensed or who purports
16 to be licensed must, immediately upon the request of a peace
17 officer, present a copy of the person's valid license and 18 government-issued identification to the peace officer. A 19 person who fails to comply with such a request commits a 20 serious misdemeanor. The bill provides definitions of 21 "government-issued identification" and "peace officer".

22 The bill prohibits a person, in an announcement to the 23 public, from representing that another person is licensed
24 as a massage therapist or a cosmetologist, when the person
25 knows or has reason to know the other person is not licensed 26 as a massage therapist or a cosmetologist. A person is also 27 prohibited from falsely representing the person's self as being 28 licensed as a massage therapist or a cosmetologist. A person
29 who violates either provision commits a serious misdemeanor.
30 The bill provides a definition of "announcement to the public".

31 HUMAN TRAFFICKING. The bill provides that a person who 32 knowingly engages in human trafficking by knowingly providing 33 or facilitating the provision of a forged, altered, or
34 fraudulent license purportedly issued pursuant to Code chapter
35 152C or 157, or a forged, altered, or fraudulent government

1 identification, to another person to force, coerce, entice,
2 assist, facilitate, or permit the other person to perform labor
3 or services, is guilty of an aggravated misdemeanor. If the 4 other person is under the age of 18, the person is guilty
5 of a class "D" felony. The bill provides that a person who 6 knowingly engages in human trafficking by knowingly forcing,
7 coercing, enticing, assisting, facilitating, or permitting
8 another person in possession of a forged, altered, or
9 fraudulent license purportedly issued pursuant to Code chapter
10 152C or 157, or a forged, altered, or fraudulent government
11 identification, to produce such license or government
12 identification to a peace officer upon request of a peace
13 officer, is guilty of an aggravated misdemeanor. If the other
14 person is under the age of 18, the person is guilty of a class
15 "D" felony. A person who is found guilty, enters a plea of 16 guilty, receives a deferred judgment, or receives a deferred or 17 suspended sentence for either violation shall be ineligible for 18 a massage therapist or cosmetologist license for at least five 19 years.

20 The bill provides that a person who owns, rents, leases, or 21 uses any building, structure, boat, trailer, or other place
22 offering shelter or seclusion, and who knows or has reason to 23 know that the building, structure, boat, trailer, or other
24 place is being used for human trafficking, commits a class
25 "D" felony. It is an affirmative defense if, immediately
26 upon acquiring knowledge of the human trafficking, the person
27 notifies a law enforcement agency with jurisdiction and fully 28 cooperates with any subsequent investigation.

29 The bill provides that a court may order restorative
30 expenses for a period of 10 years as part of a human 31 trafficking victim's restitution. The bill defines 32 "restorative expenses" as the projected costs of education,
33 vocational training, medical health, mental health,
34 transportation, housing, child care, or other projected 35 costs that will aid in a victim's recovery. The court is

1 prohibited from considering a defendant's ability to pay in the 2 court's decision to order restorative expenses. A defendant's
3 obligation to pay court-ordered restorative expenses is not
4 dischargeable in any proceeding under the federal Bankruptcy
5 Act.

6 The bill provides that if during the course of an 7 investigation of or prosecution for human trafficking, a peace
8 officer has reason to believe that a person who purports to 9 be licensed as a massage therapist or a cosmetologist does 10 not possess a valid license, or is in violation of any other 11 state or federal laws, the peace officer may report such 12 noncompliance to the appropriate licensing board, to the 13 investigations division of the department of inspections and 14 appeals, and to the appropriate state or federal authorities.
