

BREITBACH, Alfred P., Sr., Farley
Dubuque County
Democrat

Born in Balltown, Dubuque County, Iowa, April 26, 1897. Parents, Peter P. and Anna Breitbach. Attended St. Francis School at Balltown and Iowa State University of Ames. Dairy herd improvement association supervisor 33 years. Fieldman for Dubuque-Delaware Association 2½ years. Now retired. Catholic, member of Knights of Columbus, American Legion, Veterans of W. W. I, 40 & 8, Farley Commercial Club. Served on Farley school board three years. Served in the Navy World War I. Married Anna Rettenmeier, 1924; two sons and three daughters. Elected to third term.

BREITBACH, Alfred P., Sr., Farley
Dubuque County
Democrat

Born in Balltown, Dubuque County, Iowa, April 26, 1897. Parents, Peter P. and Anna Breitbach. Attended St. Francis School at Balltown and Iowa State University at Ames. Dairy herd improvement association supervisor 33 years. Fieldman for Dubuque-Delaware Dairy Products Improvement Association 2½ years. Now retired. Catholic, member of Knights of Columbus, American Legion, Veterans of W.W. I, 40 & 8, Farley Commercial Club. Served on Farley school board three years. Served in the Navy World War I. Married Anna Rettenmeyer, 1924; two sons and three daughters. Serving second term.

BREITBACH, Alfred P., Sr., Farley
Dubuque County
Democrat

Born in Balltown, Dubuque County, Iowa, April 26, 1897. Parents, Peter P. and Anna Breitbach. Attended St. Francis School at Balltown and Iowa State University at Ames. Dairy herd improvement association supervisor 33 years. Fieldman for Dubuque-Delaware Dairy Products Improvement Association 2½ years. Now retired. Catholic, member of Knights of Columbus, American Legion, Veterans of W.W. I, 40 & 8, Farley Commercial Club. Served on Farley school board three years. Served in the Navy World War I. Married Anna Rettenmeyer, 1924, two sons and three daughters. First term in the legislature.

