

HAGIE, R. W., Clarion
Republican

43rd Senatorial District—Franklin and Wright Counties

Born at Clarion, Iowa, Feb. 1, 1910. Attended a rural Wright County school and Clarion High School. Graduated from Iowa State University with B.S. degree in 1933. Owns and operates an 850-acre farm near Clarion. President, Hagie Manufacturing Company; vice-president, United-Hagie Hybrids. Soil district commissioner 1946 to 1958. Past president of state advisory committee on extension. Past president of Clarion Rotary Club and of Clarion Development Commission. Director Wright County State Bank. Helped organize the Iowa Association of Soil District Commissioners. Member Farm Bureau, Adelante and Gamma Sigma Delta Fraternity, Iowa Crop Improvement Association, and American Seed Trade Association. Married June Remington Nov. 4, 1935. Three children: John, married, attended Iowa State University, manages Hagie farms; Margaret, married, graduate of Drake University; and Kathryn, married, a graduate of University of Iowa. Deacon of Congregational Church, Clarion. Two terms in house, first in senate.

HAGIE, R. W., Clarion
Wright County
Republican

Born at Clarion, Iowa, Feb. 1, 1910. Attended a rural Wright County school and Clarion High School. Graduated from Iowa State University with B.S. degree in 1933. Owns and operates an 850-acre farm near Clarion. President, Hagie Manufacturing Company; vice-president, United-Hagie Hybrids. Soil district commissioner 1946 to 1958. Past president of state advisory committee on extension. Past president of Clarion Rotary Club and of Clarion Development Commission. Director Wright County State Bank. Helped organize the Iowa Association of Soil District Commissioners. Member Farm Bureau, Adelante Fraternity, Iowa Crop Improvement Association, and American Seed Trade Association. Married June Remington Nov. 4, 1935. Three children: John, married, attended Iowa State University, manages Hagie farms; Margaret, a graduate of Drake University; and Kathryn, a student at Drake University. Deacon of Congregational Church, Clarion. Serving second term.

HAGIE, R. W., Clarion
Wright County
Republican

Born at Clarion, Iowa, Feb. 1, 1910. Attended a rural Wright County School and Clarion High School. Graduated in 1933 from Iowa State University with B. S. degree. Owns and operates a 654-acre farm near Clarion. President, Hagie Manufacturing Company; vice president, United-Hagie Hybrids. Soil District Commissioner from 1946 to 1958. Past president of State Advisory Committee on Extension. Past president of Clarion Rotary Club and of Clarion Development Commission. Director Wright County State Bank. Helped organize the Iowa Association of Soil District Commissioners. Member Farm Bureau, Adelante Fraternity, Iowa Crop Improvement Association, American Seed Trade Association. Married June Remington Nov. 4, 1935. Three children: John, married attends Iowa State University; Margaret and Kathryn, students at Drake University. Deacon of Congregational Church, Clarion. Serving first term.