

HALL, J. R., Malvern Mills County
Republican

Born in Centerville, New Jersey, August 24, 1880. Moved to North Dakota when ten years old and later to Iowa. Was graduated from the public schools at Prairie City. Attended Simpson College at Indianola. In 1899 he became assistant cashier of the New Virginia Savings Bank, served fifteen years. In 1913 he entered the retail lumber business. From 1930 to 1938 he was receiver under the State Banking Department. Now associated with the bank at Malvern. Married in 1901 to Grace Killam. Father of two children, Mrs. L. W. Sipherd, London, Ontario, Canada, and Raymond Hall, Leon, Iowa. He is a Methodist, 32nd degree Mason, Rotarian. Served in the 48th, 49th, 50th, 50 Ex. and 51st sessions.

HALL, J. R., Malvern

Mills County

Republican

Born in Centerville, New Jersey, August 24, 1880. Moved to North Dakota when ten years old and later to Iowa. Was graduated from the public schools at Prairie City. Attended Simpson College at Indianola. In 1899 he became assistant cashier of the New Virginia Savings Bank, served fifteen years. In 1913 he entered the retail lumber business. From 1930 to 1938 he was receiver under the State Banking Department. Now in the retail lumber business at Malvern. Married in 1901 to Grace Killam. Father of two children, Mrs. L. W. Sipherd, London, Ontario, Canada, and Raymond Hall, Leon, Iowa. He is a Methodist, 32d degree Mason, Rotarian. Serving third term.

HALL, J. R., Malvern

Mills County

Republican

Born in Centerville, New Jersey, August 24, 1880. Moved to North Dakota when ten years old and later to Iowa. Was graduated from the public schools at Prairie City. Attended Simpson College at Indianola. In 1899 he became assistant cashier of the New Virginia Savings Bank, served fifteen years. In 1913 he entered the retail lumber business. From 1930 to 1938 he was receiver under the State Banking Department. Now in the retail lumber business at Malvern. Married in 1901 to Grace Killam. Father of two children, Mrs. L. W. Sipherd, London, Ontario, Canada, and Raymond Hall, Winterset, Iowa. He is a Methodist, 32d degree Mason, Rotarian. Serving second term in legislature.

HALL, J. R., Malvern

Mills County

Republican

Born in Centerville, New Jersey, August 24, 1880. Moved to North Dakota when ten years old and later to Iowa. Was graduated from the public schools at Prairie City. Attended Simpson College at Indianola. In 1899 he became assistant cashier of the New Virginia Savings Bank, served fifteen years. In 1913 he entered the retail lumber business. From 1930 to 1938 he was receiver under the State Banking Department. Now in the retail lumber business at Malvern. Married in 1901 to Grace Killam. Father of two children, Mrs. L. W. Sipherd, London, Ontario, Canada, and Raymond Hall, Winterset, Iowa. He is a Methodist, 32d degree Mason, Rotarian. Serving first term in legislature.