

LEVIS, Harold V., Chariton

Republican

4th Senatorial District—Lucas and Wayne Counties

Born June 25, 1896, at Allerton, Iowa. Attended the State University of Iowa three years, and Drake University three years. Admitted to the bar in 1924. Served as county attorney of Lucas county for three terms. Served in World war for two years. Married; father of two children. Elected to the senate in 1936.

HAROLD V. LEVIS, Chariton.—Senator from the fourth district, composed of Lucas and Wayne counties, was born June 25, 1896, at Allerton, Iowa. Attended the State University of Iowa three years, and Drake University three years. Admitted to the bar in 1924 and served as county attorney of Lucas county for three terms. Served in World war for two years. Married and have two children. Elected to the senate in 1936. A republican.