

JOHN H. JUDD, Chariton.—Senator from the fourth district, composed of Lucas and Wayne counties, died January 14, 1933, during the session of the forty-fifth general assembly. He was seventy-two years of age and gave his occupation as farmer and stockman and he was a democrat. A special election was held in the district after his death and J. E. Doze was elected to fill the vacancy.