

W. W. SAYLOR,

Representative from Bremer county, was born in Somerset, Pennsylvania, December 22, 1858, of American parentage. In 1860, his parents went West, locating at Waterloo, Iowa. Attended town and country schools, and helped his father at farming. Identified with the lumber interests. Was married to Kittle Winner in 1888. Served in the state legislature, the thirty and thirty-first sessions from Bremer county. Member M. W., K. of P., I. O. O. F., Maccabees, Mystic Tilters, Masons and Commandery. Re-elected representative in 1918. Republican in politics.