Background of Military Exchange Licenses

This report was prepared and submitted by the Iowa Department of Education, Bureau of Educational Examiners, pursuant to the following statute:

Iowa Code section 272C.12A - Licensure of Military Spouses and Veterans

5. A licensing board, agency, or department shall annually file a report with the governor and the general assembly providing information and statistics on licenses and temporary licenses issued under this section and information and statistics on credit received by individuals for education, training, and service pursuant to subsection 4.

The 2025 data shows 43 military applicants received benefits. These applicants qualified for a regular Iowa teaching license based on their teacher preparation program. The processing fee for a license ($85) is waived for all military family applicants.

Veterans

Seventeen veterans received benefits toward getting their Iowa teaching licenses in 2025.
