Project Description	Provides grants to housing businesses for developments supported by the Low Income Housing Tax Credit. Housing businesses must demonstrate that they have experienced negative economic impacts caused or exacerbated by the COVID-19 pandemic that impacted their ability to complete LIHTC projects.
Does this project include a capital expenditure?	Yes
What is the Total expected capital expenditure, including pre-development costs, if applicable	$32,926,622.00
Type of capital expenditures, based on the following enumerated uses	Affordable housing, supportive housing, or recovery housing
	"IFA's Low Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) Program provides a credit to offset an owner's federal tax liability for a 10-year period. Housing businesses that have been awarded LIHTC incentives are experiencing financial hardship due to supply chain and labor issues related to the COVID-19 pandemic that have significantly increased the cost to complete projects. Labor and material costs continue to rise due to the labor and supply chain issues, largely wiping out the benefit of the LIHTC incentives and making it impossible or infeasible to move forward with proposed new low-income housing projects. National and state housing leaders agree that housing is the largest opportunity for rapid economic recovery and growth for families and communities. Iowa faces widespread demand for quality, affordable housing, with the state expecting to need more than 60,000 additional homes by 2030. Much of Iowa’s housing stock is aging and many Iowans are overburdened with housing expenses. Developing housing units for low-income Iowans is critical to ensure safe, healthy homes for our families while avoiding congregate housing situations where the risk of the spread of COVID-19 is exacerbated. The Low Income Housing Tax Credit Loan Program is set up as a permanent cash flow loan with loan payments being paid starting in 2027.

Capital Expenditure Justification

The program was also contemplated as a grant program, but providing Federal grants to LIHTC projects is problematic. A Federal grant reduces the eligible basis of the project and in turn reduces the amount of tax credits. It was estimated that for every $100 in grant funds a project would lose approximately $75 in tax credit equity, making the grant program highly inefficient. In addition, grants are income for projects, which further hurts tax credit pricing due to the need for the investors to pay taxes on the grant income. The LIHTC Loan Program was also considered to be used for short term construction financing for up to 24 months at 0% interest. This program would have saved recipients approximately $45,000 for each $1 million in construction loan borrowed. The average project has a need for $7 million in construction loan, so the savings would have been impactful in the short term. However, a 0% permanent loan would save recipients over $930,000 over a 30-year period for each $1 million borrowed. The permanent loan was selected based on the need to fill larger gaps in permanent financing and allow the project sufficient operational cash flow.

Compared to the two alternatives of a LIHTC Grant program and short-term construction financing, the LIHTC Loan program allows for the most effective financing solution for LIHTC developers to bring additional affordable housing units to the state. "

concerns and threats to law enforcement. The Department of Public Safety and the State of Iowa currently do not own an Anonymous Reporting Tool or Threat Monitoring Software. As a result, the Department of Public Safety needs to acquire both of these items. Without these items, the State of Iowa would not be positioned to adequately address the alarming volume of students who don't feel physically safe at school. These capital purchases allow for the State's largest law enforcement agency to monitor threats and provide a tool for individuals to report self-harm/suicide, student mental health, sexual abuse/harassment, illicit drugs, or any concern that negatively impacts the learning environment. Competitive bidding will be performed for both the Anonymous Reporting Tool and the Threat Monitoring Software to ensure the capital expenditures is superior to other options and provides the greatest success is ensuring students feel physically safe at school. Project Description	"As a proportional response to the increase in mass shootings exacerbated by the pandemic, the state of Iowa has designed a program as a proportional response to the harm experienced. This program addresses the overall pandemic trend of increased mass shootings, and more specifically school shootings, to create a grant program that allows schools to: Perform school vulnerability assessments in concert with local authorities and assist the schools in creating or improving school security plans; and invest in minor capital improvements for security enhancements such as access control systems, alarm systems, barricades, camera systems, fencing, and reinforced glass. "
Does this project include a capital expenditure?	Yes
What is the Total expected capital expenditure, including pre-development costs, if applicable	$75,000,000.00
Type of capital expenditures, based on the following enumerated uses	Schools and other educational facilities
	As a response to the increase in mass shootings exacerbated by the pandemic, the State of Iowa has designed the School Safety Improvement Program as a proportional response to the harm experienced. This program addresses the overall pandemic trend of increased mass shootings, and more specifically school shootings. This program allows schools to perform security assessments in concert with local authorities and assist the schools in creating and improving school security plans and also provides funding for schools to invest in minor capital improvements for security enhancements from one or more of the six categories identified as eligible minor capital improvements identified for funding.

A study published in the Journal of American Medical Association on September 16, 2021, found that “large increases in mass shootings in the US with the start of the COVID-19 pandemic consistent with the notion that mass shootings, an extreme form of violence, may be influenced by social and economic factors.” The COVID-19 pandemic have exacerbated Iowa elementary, middle and high school students feeling unsafe. Additionally, data from the Center for Homeland Defense and Security shows that in 2021 there were 249 gun related incidence* at schools, compared to 2019 which had 119.

*The definition of incidence used is “every instance a gun is brandished, is fired, or a bullet hits school property for any reason, regardless of the number of victims, time of day, or day of week.”

From academic literature and recent events, the trend of increasing mass shootings and specifically school shootings has become starkly salient. The School Safety Vulnerability Assessment and Improvement project is a response to gun violence public health crisis that has been exacerbated by the economic and behavioral health stressors of the COVID-19 pandemic.

HSEMD, in partnership with local school districts, law enforcement personnel, private sector partners, and other stakeholders, developed a process to evaluate a school district’s safety and security that focused on policies, plans, and procedures for active threat incidents. This involved a review of the district-wide safety and security systems, infrastructure, and technology that were currently in place.

From these reviews, there were no policy recommendations. Iowa legislation passed in Senate file 2364 from 2018 provided clear guidance to school districts on the development, exercising and updating of emergency operational plans for school districts. In response to these reviews, HSEMD updated the planning resource guide for school districts to utilize in enhancing their current emergency operations plans. We recommended that school districts review the updated guide to incorporate new information. We expect that over the next year that school districts will update their current plans to include recommendations made in the vulnerability assessments they received as well as the information provided with the updated guide. These actions will enhance the level of preparedness of our school districts.

These enhancements alone do not sufficiently address the increased harm and risk of increased gun violence, as they do not address the physical security aspects that were identified during the review. Physical security integrates personnel, equipment, training; and plans, policies, and procedures into a common system of physical protection consisting of individual security measures. Virtually every school in the state has multiple physical security gaps that must be addressed through capital expenditures. Examples of these capital expenditures are indicated in section 3 of this document. Note that this is just a snapshot of the most common vulnerabilities, there are many more vulnerabilities that the school districts have and all of these vulnerabilities require capital expenditures to mitigate them.

The review consisted of vulnerability assessments designed to be holistic assessments, not only looking at the physical aspects of the schools but also the plans the schools have. Based on school vulnerability assessments conducted by HSEMD, in addition to gaps in physical security that fell in six categories (entry control, electronic security and communication systems, barriers, perimeter security, illumination, and building envelope), HSEMD identified gaps in school safety planning and protection, which included policies and procedures for preparing for and responding to active threats and other threats the schools could face.

Through this assessment process, there were vulnerable areas identified that could be mitigated, against our gun violence public health crisis. Security enhancements were needed in the six major categories.

The safety and protection of all students/staff attending school is of utmost importance. The majority of aged school buildings in Iowa have not been updated/remodeled to conform to an ever changing climate of violence that is gripping the world we live in. One of the biggest hurdles to minimizing the threat of violence is through security enhancements to their current environment. Enhancements cost money and school districts struggle with budgets and meeting the basic needs of the student population. Without the assistance of the School Safety Vulnerability Assessment and Improvement project, school boards will continue to make hard decisions on basic needs allowing security measures to go unfunded. This project would provide schools with $50k/school for some minor capital improvements to ensure students and staff are more secure in a place of learning.

Comparison of two other Capital Expenditures:

1. Provide less funding to the schools ($25k/school) - In part, the purpose of the grant is to assist schools in creating and improving school security in response to gun violence public health crisis that has been exacerbated by the economic and behavioral health stressors of the COVID-19 pandemic. Capital improvements come with a cost and in the state of today's economy, a dollar does not go as far as it did in the past. According to some experts, 2022's recent inflation numbers could indicate a market downturn for next year, leading to higher costs for building materials, exterior finishes, and other construction expenses; technology systems are more expensive due to chip and supply chain

	issues and a collection of other factors such as workforce issues impacting how things are done in the current economy. The following capital improvements were determined to be the most common security enhancements needed at the schools: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Video surveillance system: The estimated cost for a video surveillance system was $20,000-$30,000. This cost included cameras, a storage device or cloud system, monitors to view the video, and a subscription service to view/share the video. • Electronic access control: The estimated cost for a building with 25 doors (many schools have more), was approximately $37,000. • Communications Equipment: Radios that can communicate with law enforcement cost about $5,000 each; schools could require 5 or more radios depending on the size of the school. • Mass Notification Systems: $2,500 per school district per year with a $900 setup fee. • Duress/Alarm system: Average cost was approximately $10,000 per school. If we were to limit the dollar value of the grant to $25k/school, the schools would not have the level of protection needed for providing a secured environment in a public health crisis. 2. Fund more school resource officers - This involves providing funding for multiple school resource officers to sheriffs or police chiefs. This is a capability that most schools do not have or some only have part-time school resource officers. The major drawback is the total cost to the schools and then the ongoing costs after the grant ends. There is also the issue of finding enough quality candidates that law enforcement agencies would hire as these personnel would be sworn police officers. Security officers is an alternative to this, but they would not have arrest / apprehension authority and are not always the same quality as sworn police officers. The cost of a school resource officer exceeds $50k for salary, benefits, equipment, and training on an annual basis. The 2022 Iowa Wage Report published by Iowa Workforce Development, Labor Market Information Division, shows annual wages ranging from $49,218 to $73,349.

What is the Total expected capital expenditure, including pre-development costs, if applicable	$19,965,223.00
Type of capital expenditures, based on the following enumerated uses	Affordable housing, supportive housing, or recovery housing
Capital Expenditure Justification	This program attempts to mitigate COVID-19-related construction issues (supply chain, increased labor costs, material shortages/price increases) to ensure continued construction and unit supply diversification of housing stock in Iowa. By utilizing the existing HOME program model, IFA can deploy these assets in an efficient manner while increasing affordable housing unit availability throughout Iowa. This program would be geared to assist Iowans whose income is up to 80% AMI. National and state housing leaders agree that housing is the largest opportunity for rapid economic recovery and growth for families and communities. Iowa faces widespread demand for quality, affordable housing, with the state expecting to need more than 60,000 additional homes by 2030. Much of Iowa's housing stock is aging and many Iowans are overburdened with housing expenses. Developing housing units for low-income Iowans is critical to ensure safe, healthy homes for our families. Like the Iowa HOME Grant, the National Housing Trust Fund (NHTF) and HOME Investment Partnerships Program (HOME) are designed to finance affordable housing. However, there are limitations within these two HUD funded programs that make the Iowa HOME Grant a more viable solution to the problem of minimal housing units in Iowa. First, the NHTF, while important in the construction of rental units, cannot be used for the creation or rehabilitation of owner-occupied housing. The statute authorizing the HTF requires 90% of any funds awarded to be used for rental housing and not homeownership. What's more, since the program's inception in 2017, 100% of NHTF projects have been in urban areas. For these projects to be viable they require access to larger populations. The HOME Investment Partnership program provides for the acquisition/rehabilitation of owner-occupied housing; however, it's traditionally underfunded and leans heavily toward rental projects. Since 2018, HUD has awarded an average of $7.9M per year in HOME funds to be split between: Rental Projects, Tenant Based Rental Assistance, and Homebuyer programs. In that time, 16 homeowner projects have been awarded $4M in funds compared with 32 rental projects totaling $28M. Allocating $20M in funds specifically to Homebuyer projects allows for a more equitable distribution of affordable housing funds while also quickly injecting capital to address built-up demand. Additionally, this program allows for the rehabilitation of existing buildings, and thus is aligned to the Treasury's stated alternative of 'improving existing capital assets.'

Does this project include a capital expenditure?	Yes
What is the Total expected capital expenditure, including pre-development costs, if applicable	$25,992,273.00
Type of capital expenditures, based on the following enumerated uses	Childcare, daycare and early learning facilities
	Iowa has lost 33 percent of its child care businesses and the state is short 350,000 child care slots for children younger than 12 years old. Moreover, 23 percent of Iowans (35 percent of those in rural areas) live in a “child care desert,” or an area lacking an adequate supply of licensed child care options. According to a recent report issued by the Chamber of Commerce Foundation and the Iowa Association of Business and Industry, Iowa’s child care shortage costs the State’s economy roughly $935 million annually in lost tax revenue, worker absence, and employee turnover. The same report estimates that a little over half of Iowa parents reported missing work due to child care issues in the past three months. At an average monthly cost of $1,031, child care is more expensive than housing for the average Iowa family. These problems intensified during the pandemic, which forced many child care providers to close while others were left with mounting debt, higher expenses, and a worker shortage. According to the Iowa Women’s Foundation, Iowa had 1.56 children per child care slot pre-COVID and 3.18 children per child care slot post-COVID. The Governor’s Child Care Task Force Report of 2021 made recommendations for increasing the availability and affordability of child care services. Within this report, the task force made recommendations to approach both the supply-side and demand-side of this complex issue. These recommendations including both increasing slots for child care as well as increasing the availability of safe, up-to-date physical spaces for high-quality child care to take place. Overall, the state stood up two programs simultaneously to address these two aspects of the child care challenges facing the state (in addition to other efforts to address the need for child care). The program addressing child care slots has been funded with an alternative funding source, and thus this program covers the funding needed for the capital expenditures which are needed to wholistically address the lack of child care across the state. The purpose of the 2022 Child Care Business Incentive Grant is to encourage and enable businesses and employer consortiums to build on-site child care centers or partner with local and regional child care services to increase new available slots for an employer’s employees (not at the expense of existing or available slots in the local area). This grant program incentivizes business engagement in child care. The state considered a variety of types of projects to address child care challenges facing the state including constructing a new facility, improvements to an existing facility, repurposing existing space that is owned, leasing a facility, or partnering exclusively with an existing child care provider to expand slot capabilities. All alternatives were incorporated into the program design and determined to be eligible uses for this program. The overall scoring rubric was divided into seven (7) main categories that asked applicants to provide a needs assessment of the proposed project along with a project plan, timeline, and performance measures for evaluating the success of the program. They were also required to list all community partnerships associated with the project and the organization's capacity to implement the project ensuring that the project could be sustainable beyond the period of performance. Applicants were required to submit a budget narrative which detailed the expenses as well as provide a cost estimate per individual. The majority of these areas were scored on a 1–5-point scale with the performance measures and evaluation category being scored on a 1–10-point scale. Scores of 55 and below were deemed ineligible and required further development for success. Priority ratings were awarded to applicants that had not previously been awarded within the two prior award cycles as well as those who were located within a state identified child care desert.

Project Description	The Office of the Chief Information Officer has implemented the Okta Identity Management Solution for the State of Iowa. This project will provide for a one year renewal of the OCIO's Okta platform. This solution provides a single identity for employees and citizens interacting with state government systems. With a single identity, the same username and password can be used across all applications. Okta provides important security features for State government. With Okta, OCIO can require two-factor authentication across all services, remove users automatically upon departure from state services, and receive all the security features and benefits of a cloud service that will not require OCIO to maintain and protect on-premises systems.

Project Description	The network infrastructure that supports the communication between the internet and state agencies on the Iowa Capitol Complex is aged and overdue for replacement. In many areas services availability is lacking entirely. The reliability of this network directly impacts the State government's ability to provide its services. This project replaces network switches and wireless access points across the campus while providing better reliability, service, and security. This technology modernization effort provides the capability to remotely monitor and address service issues, effectively improving service response times. The project includes uninterrupted power supplies (UPS) that continue to provide temporary power to the network and wireless access points in the event of a power outage.

Inspired by the innovative WorkSMART Connector patient care apprenticeship at the Career Academy of Pella, successful applicants will build community partnerships and design a health care registered apprenticeship program for high school apprentices. The result is an alternative pathway to health education with an added opportunity to earn and learn, including one-to-one mentoring during on the job training. Awarded funds can also be used to acquire simulation software and hardware to further enhance apprentices' educational and practical experience, and readiness for the field.

Project Description	Inmates incarcerated at the Newton Correctional Facility will receive classroom and field training in the building trades while constructing modular homes. The inmates will receive portable training certificates and be connected to Iowa employers upon release.
Does this project include a capital expenditure?	Yes
What is the Total expected capital expenditure, including pre-development costs, if applicable	$5,500,000.00
Type of capital expenditures, based on the following enumerated uses	Other (please specify)
	The Homes for Iowa program trains incarcerated men in the building trades in preparation for their release. This program serves communities disproportionately impacted by the public health emergency, namely formerly incarcerated individuals, as well as racial minorities, which comprise 36.3% of the state prison population. Capital expenditures for a warehouse and fabrication building are needed for the Homes for Iowa program, located adjacent to the Newton Correctional Facility. The warehouse will hold materials purchased in bulk for the program. Bulk purchases are an important aspect of the program, enabling it to competitively procure materials such as lumber, drywall and plumbing fixtures. Purchasing of building materials has become more difficult and expensive due to the health emergency, increasing the need for this capital expenditure. The fabrication building provides program space to train men in the production of HVAC ductwork, door frames, window frames and the like. The building will also provide for storage of temperature sensitive materials such as paint.

The program does not currently have any warehouse storage or fabrication space. Office and classroom areas are being used to store cabinets and other building materials, and the program is unable to train more individuals without additional space. The Homes for Iowa program is modeled after a long-running operation in South Dakota, where storage of building materials and the fabrication of subcomponents have been major factors in the success of the program. This program provides training in the building trades to incarcerated men, and the warehouse and fabrication buildings will be an integral part of this training. It would be ineffective to locate either building offsite, since this would be inaccessible to most of the program participants.

The Department of Administrative Services assisted Iowa Prison Industries to administer a competitive procurement process to select vendors for the construction of the warehouse and fabrication building.

Warehouse Procurement:

Three bids were received for the Bid Package 01 and Alternate 01 for BP01 and three bids were received for Bid Package 02 and Alternate 01 for BP02.

The bids were awarded to the following:

- Bid Package 01 and Alternate 01 for BP01 - Sunrise Post Frame of Kalona, Iowa
- Bid Package 02 and Alternate 01 for BP02 - Van Maanen Electric of Newton, Iowa

Fabrication Building Procurement:

Three bids were received for Bid Package BP01 – ESCB. The bid was awarded to Accurate Commercial of West Des Moines, Iowa.

Additionally, Iowa Prison Industries considered alternative project types that were not considered viable options including:

1. Expansion of the current institution warehouse.
2. Leasing space in the city of Newton, 9 miles away.

See below for evaluation of alternative project types.

1. Expansion of the Newton Correctional Facility Warehouse.

The Newton Correctional Facility operates an 8,500 ft² warehouse outside the prison's secure perimeter. The warehouse is used to receive shipments of the supplies needed to operate a correctional facility – food, toilet paper, office products, etc. Items are shuttled inside the prison in a secure manner. The warehouse is staffed on one shift with several state employees and minimum security inmates. The facility is fully utilized, space-wise. Expansion of the warehouse (tripling its size) for storage of building products such as lumber and drywall is not feasible, both due to

	incompatibility with food and other items stored there, as well as the surrounding terrain, which is not suitable to accommodate a building expansion. Because the expansion of this particular warehouse would be impractical, no quantitative cost estimates have been developed. 2. Leasing of space in the city of Newton (9 miles away). Industrial warehousing is available in the City of Newton, nine miles away. However this would result in heavy truck traffic through the city, procurement and operation of a flatbed trailer and semi, and the transport of incarcerated workers off grounds multiple times each day. Security considerations would prevent these offsite trips with incarcerated men, and so no quantitative data was obtained.
