Dear Mr. Smithson and Ms. Boal:

Pursuant to the Constitution of the State of Iowa, Article IV § 16, below is a report of all reprieves, commutations, and pardons granted during the 2016 calendar year.

I. PARDONS.

The individuals listed below were granted pardons for fulfilling their financial obligations to pay court costs, fines, and restitution. Further, the individuals listed below demonstrated exemplary character, received positive recommendations from the Iowa Board of Parole, showed remorse for their crimes, received strong recommendations from community leaders and their employers, and gave back to society since committing their crimes.

Ian J. Marietta
Ivan E. Gillis
Slater W. Bayliss
Stephanie A. Gryzbek
Tamara Lopez-King

II. SPECIAL RESTORATION OF CITIZENSHIP RIGHTS (FIREARMS).

The individuals listed below were granted a special restoration of their citizenship rights (firearms) for fulfilling their financial obligations to pay court costs, fines, and restitution. Further, the individuals listed below demonstrated exemplary character, received positive recommendations from the Iowa Board of Parole, showed remorse for their crimes, received strong recommendations from community leaders and their employers, and gave back to society since committing their crimes.

Brett B. Buffington
Edward Clark
Jeremy Puhmann
Jon Dage
Robert E. Hoskins II
Robert Purcell

III. RESTORATION OF CITIZENSHIP (VOTING).

I granted Restoration of Citizenship Rights (Voting) to the following individuals because they have fully discharged their respective sentences and fulfilled their financial obligations to the court (including court costs and fines), and have either fully satisfied their restitution obligations to their victims, or have demonstrated that they are current on a payment plan to pay such restitution in good faith:
