

The Division is in year three of a contract with the Federal Food and Drug Administration (FDA) to help enforce provisions of the Family Smoking Prevention and Tobacco Control Act of 2009. The total duration of this contract, including the exercise of option to renew, is not to exceed three years. FDA funds are used to reimburse the state for actual expenses.