Tax Credit: Adoption Tax Credit

The Adoption Tax Credit is available to individual income taxpayers who pay or incur qualified adoption expenses associated with the adoption of a child under 18 years old. Adoption expenses paid or incurred can be claimed in the tax year the adoption was finalized, up to the credit cap, regardless of the year in which the expenses were paid. If expenses are paid or incurred after the year the adoption is finalized, and the credit cap was not previously met, those expenses can be claimed in the year they were paid or incurred up to the credit cap.

For tax years 2014 through 2016, the maximum amount of the tax credit was $2,500 per adoption. Beginning on or after January 1, 2017, the amount of the tax credit was increased to $5,000 per adoption.

An adoption means the permanent placement in Iowa of a child by a qualifying agency. Qualified adoption expenses are defined as unreimbursed expenses paid or incurred in connection with the adoption of a child, including medical and hospital expenses of the biological mother that are incident to the child's birth, welfare agency fees, legal fees, and all other fees and costs related to the adoption of the child.

Legislative History

The Adoption Tax Credit became effective for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2014. The tax credit was for qualified adoption expenses paid or incurred by the taxpayer during the tax year in connection with the adoption of a child by the taxpayer, not to exceed $2,500 per adoption.

In 2016, the amount of the tax credit was increased to $5,000 per adoption for tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2017.

In 2019, retroactive to January 1, 2019, all adoption expenses paid or incurred can be claimed in the tax year the adoption was finalized, up to the credit cap, regardless of the year in which the expenses were paid. In addition, any expenses paid or incurred after the year of the adoption being finalized that, when added to previous expenses, are under the credit cap can be claimed in the year paid or incurred.
