Honor girls '72 state tournament basketball team here Saturday

The 1971-72 Ogden High School state tournament basketball team was honored between the boys and girls basketball games Saturday, Dec. 19, 2009 versus Woodward-Granger. To commemorate the event Phil Stone came back to do the announcing.

During the ceremony, OHS graduate Nancy Casey recounted the historical moment.

She said that five years ago we had the pleasure of honoring Ogden's first men's basketball team that made it to the state tournament. Tonight, the members of the 1952 team are here with their wives to help us honor another very important group of young women. Would you please join me in welcoming the 1952 men's team as I ask them to stand and be recognized: Bob Morgan, Harley Saunders, Lowell Morgan, Kenny

"A dream came true on that night in 1972 when you upset Ballard and sent the Ogden team to the state tournament. That was truly a come-from-behind classic. We were down nine points with a little over two minutes left to play. They thought they had won the game, but you all proved them wrong. Ballard did not know they were playing a 'come from behind' kind of team with a deep, gutsy bench.

"You were believers. You were dedicated, hard working athletes. You were a coachable team.

Tonight you are being honored for those characteristics that led you to that fantastic accomplishment. I truly do miss not being there with you tonight to help celebrate you well-deserved recognition. I wish you all well. Congratulations."

members so much of that game. Ballard's last shot that swished out of the free throw competition and Kathy was selected to represent Ogden.

Kathy made 22/25 in the Sectional competition winning the opportunity to advance to the District level. Once again she sank 22 of 25 and advanced to the Regional competition. There, Kathy made 25/25 to win the competition, but they allowed her to continue shooting until she missed. Kathy made 81 free throws in a row to break the existing State of Iowa free throw record of 69. Sports Illustrated magazine featured an article about Kathy and her achievement.

The year was 1972. Six on six was the game. Three forwards, three guards and the three point shot did not exist! Under the direction of coaches John Kean and Jim Houchins, 15 young ladies pulled off the season of a lifetime. They went up against 26 opponents in their campaign to make it to Veterans Memorial Auditorium with a 22-4 record. The lady Bulldogs out-scored their opponents 15 times by double digits and two of their four losses were only one-point ball games!

District play consisted of three games. Ogden easily defeated Coon Rapids in the first, 50-42. The second game was a bit of a "nail biter" as the Bulldogs defeated Perry 42-41. But it was the District Championship game between Ogden and Ballard that most of us will never forget. What happened in the last 84 seconds of play has to be one of the most unbelievable finishes in Bulldog basketball history.

With one minute and 24 seconds on the clock, Diane Monthei put one in to bring Ballard's lead down to seven points. A critical steal in the guard court by Deb Townsend reignited the Bulldogs as Jeri Jean Doran drove in a layup, cutting the score, 70-65, with one minute left. Bulldog guard court pressure again caused two additional Ballard turnovers, landing the ball into the forward Jeri Jean Doran's hands, who drove in twice for four points, to bring the score within one point. It was 70-69 with 29 seconds to go.

A foul on Ogden put Ballard at the free throw line. The Bomberettes had been hot at the line all night long but they missed this one and it was Ogden who pulled in the rebound.

With the ball now in the Bulldog forward court again, with seven seconds to go, it was Diane Monthei who laded in the winning basket with four seconds remaining. Ballard took a shot in the final second of the game but missed.

The Bulldogs had indeed won the honor of advancing to the State Tournament and are presently the only Ogden girls team to do so.

We have a letter to share with you from Coach Houchins who is wintering in Texas and could not attend our program this evening:

To the state qualifiers from the 1971-72 girls basketball team.

members so much of that game. Ballard's last shot that swished out of the basket, etc. Thanks for the memories!"

Ladies, we proudly salute you.

It is my privilege to introduce to you our 1972 lady Bulldogs. Please join me in honoring:

From Carroll, IA: Kyle Boehm Halbur
From Ankeny, IA: Karen Jenkins Jones

From Jefferson, IA: Jana Jones Rec-tor

From Ames, IA: Diane Monthei Love
From Winterset, IA: Jodi Lingren Tymeson

From West Des Moines, IA: Kathy Marlow. A couple points of interest about Kathy. First of all, Kathy was fourth highest scorer in the West Central Conference with 668 points. Secondly, every team selected a representative to compete in the State of Iowa

Enter guilty pleas in dog-fighting ring

Zachary R. Connelly, 32 of Ogden, Ryan J. Tasler, 42, of Woodward, and Julio Reyes, 29, of Tecumseh, NE pled guilty last week for their parts in one of the largest coordinated dog fighting rings in United States history.

Connelly admitted to transporting a pit bull from Iowa to Gilman City, Mo, to participate in dog fights at the residence of co-defendant Cris E. Bottcher, 48. Tasler admitted to assisting Connelly. Reyes admitted to transporting the dogs from Nebraska to Missouri on two different dates. Three other co-defendants, including Kevin P. Tasler, 51, of Jefferson, also pled guilty in the case.

"Under federal statutes, each of the defendants is subject to a sentence of up to five years in federal prison without parole, plus a fine up to $250,000 and an order of restitution," said Don Ledford spokesman for the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Western District of Missouri.

Learn a new craft this winter

The Leonard A. Good Community Library would like to help you chase the winter blues away.

They would like to hold some classes on a few crafts such as paper piecing, knitting, crocheting, yo-yo making, beginning quilting, and any other ideas you might be interested in.

Please call 275-4550 to let them know which activity you would be interested in learning. The first class, paper piecing is scheduled for January.
