Services for former State Senator Clifford E. Burroughs held June 15

Funeral services for former State Senator Clifford E. Burroughs, 82, of 510 North Fifth Street, Greene, were held Tuesday, June 15, 1999, at Reid's Funeral Chapel in Greene, with Pastor Galen E. Smith officiating.

Clifford Earl Burroughs was born January 28, 1917, in rural Clarksville, Butler County, Iowa, the eighth of nine children born to Alfred and Effie Mae (Bohner) Burroughs. He died early Friday morning, June 11, 1999, at the Eleventh Street Chautauqua Guest Home in Charles City, after a long illness.

He attended two country schools in Butler County and graduated from Greene High School in 1935. Leaving the family farm in 1937, he started work at the John Deere Tractor Co. in Waterloo. In 1942 he transferred to Iowa Transmission, where he assembled tank transmissions. Later in that year he moved to Phoenix, AZ, and worked as an airplane mechanic, first at Luke Field and then at Yuma Army Air Base. He returned to Iowa and was drafted into the Army in 1945. After basic training he counseled returning servicemen prior to discharge. Following his own discharge he worked for an investment company and sold securities until 1974. At that time he was elected to the Iowa State Senate, and served for five years. In 1978 he was appointed by Gov. Robert Ray as administrative law judge with the Appeals Board of Job Service, where he served until his retirement in 1982.

On June 29, 1940, he married Mary Virginia Pooley of Greene. In 1947 they built the home in Greene where they reared their eight children. Cliff was active in the Greene community. He was mayor of Greene in 1948-49. He was past president of the Greene Commercial Club, 50-year member of the American Legion, member of the Lions Club and past president of the PTA. He served as assistant Cubmaster and was on the Board of Review of the Boy Scouts. He taught radiological monitoring as part of the Butler County Civil Defense. He filmed football and basketball games for the high school athletic department.

He enjoyed travel. He and his wife had visited all fifty states, Canada and Europe. His hobbies included bird watching, stamp collecting, astronomy, genealogy, carpentry and refinishing furniture. He was an avid reader and followed current events. He had a home shop and darkroom and was an accomplished photographer.

He was preceded in death by his parents; three sisters, Blythe I. Becker, Dorothy W. Moser, and Cathryn Kern; his five brothers: Alfred John, Howard N., QMC Laurence B. Burroughs, USN Ret., Maynard C. and Paul R. Burroughs; his son, Capt. Paul N. Burroughs USAF; and his grandson, Benjamin Burroughs.

He is survived by his wife of 58 years, Mary of Greene; his two daughters, Vicki (Robert) Bixler of Hawthorn Woods, IL, and Linda (Douglas) Rabbitt of Greene; his five sons, Craig (Sandy) of Chicago, Kent, and LCDR Bruce (Wendy) Burroughs, USN Ret., both of Greene, Neil (Debra) of Aurora, CO, and Brian (Tammie) of Lenoir City, TN; 17 grandchildren, Roy and Lara Bixler, Shaun Marusek, Maren Grieff, Blair, Bryce and Blake Burroughs, Capt. Scott A. Burroughs USAF, Diane, Mary and Susan Mataragas, Andrew, Jonathan, Caitlin and Cairin Burroughs, Shelby Edwards, and Christopher Burroughs; and two step-grandchildren, Christopher and Holly Rabbitt; and eight great-grandchildren.

Those planning an expression of sympathy may direct memorials to the Clifford E. Burroughs Memorial Fund in care of the family, which will be presented to the Greene Public Library.
