Celebration of Life

— Russell L. 'Dutch' Wyckoff —

URBANA — Russell L. "Dutch" Wyckoff, age 79, died Friday, September 3, 2004 at University Hospitals & Clinics in Iowa City from medical complications.

Funeral Services will be held at 10:00 A.M., Wednesday, September 8, 2004 at the Phillips Funeral Home Chapel in Vinton with Revs. Leo and Sheri Andersen officiating. Interment will be held at the Kisling Cemetery, rural Urbana with Military Rites. Friends may call from 4:00 until 8:00 P.M., Tuesday at the funeral home.

"Dutch" was born on March 2, 1925 on the family farm West of Urbana, the son of Charley and Neva (Rouse) Wyckoff. He attended the Urbana Schools and graduated with the class of 1942. Following graduation, Dutch enlisted in the U.S. Army and was stationed with the 87th Infantry Division, Company L., and participated in the Battle of the Bulge. He was awarded the Bronze Star and the Combat Infantry Badge. He received an honorable discharge at the rank of Staff Sergeant in 1945. On September 1, 1946, he was united in marriage to Margie Ploeger at the German Reform Church in rural Schaller, IA. Dutch was a lifelong farmer and owned his own plumbing and heating business in Urbana during the 1950's. He learned his trade from "Spider" McCoy, Mike Liebech and Leonard Zieser. Dutch also served 4 terms in the Iowa Legislature, followed by one term as a Benton County Supervisor. When Dutch and Margie retired, he and his sons built a new home on the family farm, where they have lived for the past 15 years.

He was active in High School and Town Team baseball and enjoyed watching his grandsons play ball. He was a member of the 87th Infantry Association and Veterans of the Battle of Bulge, as well as a 50-year member of the Urbana American Legion Post # 264.

He is survived by his wife Margie; four sons, John and wife Dixie of Vinton; Ted and wife Edith of Urbana and Columbia, South America; Richard and wife Joyce and James and wife Cathy, all of the Urbana area; his sister, Geraldine Hickle of Shellrock; seven grandsons; four granddaughters; three great grandsons; and five great granddaughters.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brother Marshall; brothers-in-law, Max Johnson, James Hickle, and Clarence Malcolm and his great grandson, Forest Wyckoff.

A memorial fund has been established or donations may be made in Dutch's name to a church or charity of the donor's choice.
