MARY ANN TURSI

Des Moines

Mary Ann Tursi passed away at her daughter's home Saturday, November 1, 2008.

Her family was by her side.

Mass of Christian Burial will be 10 a.m. Thursday, November 6, 2008 at St. Anthony Catholic Church. Visitation will be held from 3 to 8 p.m., Wednesday, with a 7 p.m. Rosary at Brooks Funeral Care - Tonini Chapel, 2135 SW 9th. Burial will take place at Glendale Cemetery where she will be laid to rest between her beloved husband, Joseph and her dear brother, Frank.

Mary was born November 9, 1920 to Jennie and Jim Severino. She grew up on the west side of Des Moines where she attended West Junior High and graduated from North High School, sporting pink and green as her favorite colors for life. It was there that she met her loving mate, Joseph Tursi and they enjoyed a wonderful marriage of over 50 years before Joseph's passing.

Known as a dynamo by her friends, Mary was a volunteer with passion. She was involved with hospital auxiliaries, Festival of Trees, March of Dimes, The American Legion and the alumni group of North High. She was a devout Catholic and loved her church.

But the 4' 10" energizer was truly known as the democrat of all democrats.

But the 4' 10" energizer was truly known as the democrat of all democrats.
 She could be seen canvassing for the party, dining with presidential candidates, walking the streets for votes for her candidates and never missing a chance to give her opinion on issues. Mary was always in the middle of the action.
 Even as she was dealing with her pain, she still managed to talk with Senator Joe Biden when he visited Iowa (she campaigned for him in earlier years) and in her snappy way advised him on his mission as VP. The party has lost a strong ally.

Mary was also known as the grandmother of all grandmothers. Her love
