Obituary

Chester O. Hougen

Chester O. Hougen, 74, passed away at his home, 107 Perkins Street, Leesburg, Florida, on Thursday, March 25. He was a native of Iowa, born at McCallsburg, April 10, 1907, the son of the late Ole C. and Carrie (Malmin) Hougen.

He graduated from McCallsburg High School and the University of Iowa Law School. He practiced law in Story City and Nevada before moving to Hampton, where he owned an appliance store. Later he moved to Waterloo where he owned the St. Charles Kitchens franchise.

He was elected State Representative from Black Hawk County, and then state Senator, and served in these capacities for eight years. He then was appointed Chief of the Iowa State Inheritance Tax Division. He retired from this position and moved to Leesburg, Florida in 1973.

Chester was married to Louise Montgomery of Stuart and Des Moines in 1929. They had one son, Howard Montgomery (Monty) Hougen, who now
