School, graduating in 1912 and attended pre-law school at Grinnell College for one and one half years.

He received his L. L. B. (Bachelor of Laws) from the State University of Iowa in 1917 and was admitted to practice.

In 1917, he entered 1st Officers Training School at Ft. Snelling, Minnesota and was commissioned 2nd Lieutenant in August, 1917.

He was admitted to practice in South Dakota after passing bar examination there in 1920, but bought out an older lawyer in Lake Mills, Iowa, and was there from January 1, 1921, until June 1933, when he came to Cherokee and opened an office. In 1934, he was elected to the office of County Attorney and served from 1935 to 1947. During that time a partnership was formed with Joe G. Nelson (not related) and engaged in general practice until December 6, 1960. In November of that year he had been elected to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of the Hon. R. G. Rodman, long time District Court Judge, serving the 18th Judicial District, Iowa. The district included Plymouth, Sioux, Lyon, Osceola, O'Brien and Cherokee Counties. Judge Nelson served those counties as judge from December 6, 1960, until March 23, 1969, when he reached the mandatory retirement age of 75 years.

On April 1, 1969, he was appointed Juvenile Court Referee and heard all cases involving neglect and dependency or delinquency of children under 18 years of age in the district he had served as judge. He resigned this position effective November 1, 1972.

As a senior, he was elected President of the Senior Law Class of the University of Iowa.

While Cherokee County Attorney, he served one year as Secretary-Treasurer and one year as President of the Iowa County Attorneys Association.

On November 3, 1917, Judge Nelson married Martha Howell and on September 27, 1918 their son, William H. Nelson, now a retired Air Force Colonel, was born. They have four grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

HAROLD V. NELSON

State Representative of Cherokee County

Harold V. Nelson was born June 30, 1899, on a farm near Quimby, Iowa, in Cherokee County. He was the son of Edward S. and Hannah M. Nelson. He grew up in Cherokee County and was graduated from Aurelia High School. He then attended Cedar Rapids Business College. On June 15, 1926, he was married to Lela Irene Johnson. They have one son, James A., born September 8, 1930.

Mr. Nelson has had lifelong experience in farming and livestock feeding, giving him that special insight needed in his position as Representative of a rural area. He is also a member of the Methodist Church, the Kiwanis, and the Toastmasters. He is a member of the Farm Bureau and is past county president. He has been president of the Federal Land Bank Association of Storm Lake, a member of Knights of Pythias, and a member of the Little Sioux Wildlife Ass'n. He has also participated actively in the Boy Scouts of America.

Mr. Nelson is affiliated with the Republican Party. He served in the 61st General Assembly, 1965-1966; 62nd General Assembly, 1967-68; 63rd General Assembly, 1969-70. He also served on the Agriculture Committee, Constitutional Amendments and Reapportionment Committee, Government Reorganization Committee, Tax Revision Committee, Governmental Affairs Committee, Governmental Subdivisions, Law Enforcement, Schools and Ways and Means Committee.

BURNETTE NEVILLE

Burnette Florence Neville, daughter of Allen and Mabel Dubes Neville of Aurelia, was born October 13, 1919.

Miss Neville was graduated from Aurelia High School in 1939 and went to work in Cherokee. During her school days, some of her activities included oratorical contests, band, pep band, and drama. Her grandfather, Michael Dubes, was a great inspiration to her, especially after her father died in 1937. Her mother died in 1968.

It was at the Church of Christ, in Cherokee, that Minister Noah Hall challenged her and a boy friend to enter Minnesota Bible College, Minneapolis, Minnesota. They both enrolled in the fall of 1942, to prepare for missionary work. Her friend was drafted for military service soon after college started and lost his life while serving his country. She decided at that time to enter the ministry.

In Bible college, she was elected class president in her sophomore and senior years, directed the college orchestra, conducted the college band, and served as assistant to the dormitory matron. During her senior year she won first place in the oratorical contest. She received her B. A. (Ministerial Degree) from the Minnesota Bible College in 1946, and later took additional work in library science at the University of Minnesota.

Miss Neville served as pastor of the Church of Christ, Eagle Lake, Minnesota, from 1946 to 1952. During her tenure, a Bible School was organized and regular preaching services were instituted. The first Camp Fire Girl Organization began at this time. Miss Neville was ordained into the ministry in 1947 at Eagle Lake.

The Minnesota Bible College called her back to serve as Dean of Women in 1952. In 1955 she became librarian, also.

When the college moved to Rochester, Minnesota, in 1971, she resigned, after 19 years of service. At present she is serving the Fairview School of Nursing, directing the nurses in their
