Funeral services for State Representative Urban F. Hageman, 36, were held in St. Benedict's Church, Decorah, at 10 a. m. Wednesday, Oct. 13.

Hageman was killed Sunday, Oct. 10, in a farm accident on the Lee Schissel farm in Canoe Township.

The Rev. William P. Mullen conducted the services.

Burial was in St. Aloysius Cemetery, Calmar, with the Steine Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers for the service were Lee Schissel, Adrian Holt- haus, Leo McConnell, Cletus Carolan, Victor Hageman, and Eddie Wicks.

Three senators and five representatives were the official representatives of the Iowa legislature and served as honorary pallbearers.

Members of the House attending were: Maurice E. Baringer, R-Oelwein; Rae Melrose, D-Charles City; Harold Mueller, D-Manly; M. Ross Stevenson, D-Lime Springs; and Dale L. Tieden, R-Garnaville.

State senators attending the service were: Adolph W. Elvers, D-Elkader; Andrew O. Frommelt, D-Dubuque; and H. L. Heying, D-West Union.

Born in Calmar

The son of Ignatius and Elizabeth, Fort Atkinson, Hageman was born August 23, 1929, in Full Slate Of Events Scheduled

Activity moved into high gear this week as Thomas Rob- erts High School students pre- pare for their annual homecom- ing activities this weekend.

Events will open today, Thursday, Oct. 14, at 2:30 p. m. as the homecoming queen is crowned.

The girl who receives the crown, scepter and robe, will be the first queen to ascend her throne in the new gymnasium.

This year's candidates for queen are Paula Berg, Lynette Ellingson, Wanda Kroshus and Jane Ziegelmaier.

Underclass attendants chosen earlier this week, are: Lana Gipp, junior; and Linda Van Gorp, sophomore.

Thursday evening will see the annual Pep Rally and Bonfire which will take place in the evening behind Thomas Roberts High School.

The annual homecoming parade will pass through the business district begin- ning at 2:15 p. m.

Friday night, the Decorah Vikings will play Columbus of Waterloo on the home field at 7:45.

The junior class of Thomas Roberts High School will take its guests to "Far Away Places" in the high school gymnasium.

The doors for the dance will open immediately after the foot- ball game.

All Decorah High School alumni and their guests are welcome to attend the dance.

Those attending will find themselves taking a journey "a- round the world with stops in various countries for a visit."

REV. OLAF BRANDT TO TEACH COURSE AT GLENWOOD LUTHERAN

Rev. Olaf Brandt will teach a course in "Strengthening Family Life" on the second Wednesday night of each month at 9 p. m., at the Glenwood Lutheran Church. The course will run from October through May. All Sunday school teachers and as- sociated teachers of Glenwood parish, and others interested, are invited.

attended grammar school and was graduated from the City Academy in Iowa City in 1893. He entered the University of Iowa Medical School in September 1895, and also played on the University football team for three years. In 1899 he was graduated from the University of Iowa School of Medicine and was the second intern in the SUI Hospital, now East Hall.

On April 1, 1905 he was married to Pearl O. Smith of Lisbon. Three children were born of this union, a son and two daughters.

Dr. Gardner joined the Iowa National Guard in April, 1893, and was called to active duty in April, 1895, for the Spanish American War. He was commissioned a Captain during World War I and served in the Alsace-Lorraine sector. He was a colonel in the army reserve during World War II, but was not called to active duty. He was a charter member of Benjamin Franklin Masonic Lodge, Lisbon O.E.S., Cyclops Legion Post, and the Rotary Club. He was also active for years in the Cedar Rapids Consistory and Fair Shrine.

Dr. Gardner, a Republican, served in the Iowa House of Representatives in the Forty-ninth, Fiftieth, Fiftieth Extra, and Fifty-first sessions of the General Assembly as Representative of Linn County. He died June 18, 1965.

Dr. Gardner is survived by a son, Raphael, of Scottsdale, Arizona, and two daughters, Mrs. Lucille Dunn and Mrs. Fay Sizer, both of Lisbon. There are seven grandchildren and twenty-four great grandchildren who also survive.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SIXTY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF IOWA: That in the passing of the Honorable John A. Gardner, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his services, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

URBAN F. HAGEMAN

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Urban F. Hageman, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Urban F. Hageman was born August 23, 1929 in Winneshiek County, the son of Gus and Elizabeth Hageman. He was educated at Calmar, and graduated from a four-year agricultural course. He also took some Iowa State University short courses.

On November 9, 1953 he was married to Joan Rooney. To this union were four sons and two daughters.

He was a member of the Catholic Church, the Elks, Knights of Columbus, F. B. Bureau and the National Farmers Organization. He served in the armed forces during the Korean conflict and was stationed in the Panama Canal Zone.

Mr. Hageman, a Democrat, served as Winneshiek County Representative in Sixty-first session of the General Assembly.

He was killed October 10, 1965, in a farm accident.

Surviving Mr. Hageman are his widow Joan, and six children; Steve, Jane, Cynthia, Kevin, Mark and Michael. Also his parents Mr. & Mrs. Ignatius Hageman of Calmar, three brothers and five sisters.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SIXTY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF IOWA: That in the passing of the Honorable Urban F. Hageman, the state has lost an honored citizen and faithful and useful servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

JOHN E. HANSEN

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable John E. Hansen, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

John E. Hansen was born at Ringsted, Iowa, Emmet County, December 27, 1888.

He was educated in the public schools of Emmet County, and attended Iowa State Teachers' College and Capital City Commercial College at Des Moines.

On July 2, 1912, he married Anna M. Petersen of Ringsted. To this union six children were born.

He entered the banking business in 1909. He was employed by the Iowa Bankers' Department, Federal Land Bank of Omaha, and the Commercial Savings Bank of Dedham.
