ticipated in the battle of Perryville and of Stone River and was in the campaign through to Chickamauga. He also participated in the battles at Missionary Ridge, Rocky Face Ridge, Resaca, Rome, Georgia, Peach Tree Creek, the hotly contested battle of Kenesaw Mountain and the siege of Atlanta. He was likewise in the engagement at Jonesboro and went in the Georgia campaign to Savannah, where he aided in besieging that city. There he was honorably discharged, December 25, 1864, after more than three years devoted to the most strenuous and arduous military service.

Mr. Lafferty returned to his old home in Wisconsin, but came almost immediately afterward to Iowa, reaching Boonesboro on the 10th of September, 1865, accompanied by his wife and one child. He had learned the cabinet-maker's trade at Monroe, Wisconsin, and in Boone he worked at his trade until 1870, when he took up carpentering, which he followed continuously until his retirement about a year ago. He was closely identified with building operations in this city and was accorded a large patronage. He still enjoys good health, being a hale and hearty man for one of his years.

In Monroe, Wisconsin, Mr. Lafferty was united in marriage to Miss Sarah Sutterlee, a daughter of William E. Sutterlee, who was born December 20, 1812, and died September 25, 1877. Mr. and Mrs. Lafferty have but one child, Mamie, now Mrs. John Doran, of York, Nebraska. Mrs. Lafferty is a member of the Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Lafferty belongs to McCook Post, G. A. R., and thus maintains pleasant relations with his old army comrades and recounts with them interesting events which occurred upon the battlefields of the south. In politics he is a staunch republican, having supported the men and measures in the party since its organization. He erected his present home in 1893 on an acre and a quarter of ground at the corner of Tenth and Division streets. He is now one of the venerable residents of Boone and well merits the high regard entertained for him. His life history has connected him closely with the city and its upbuilding through almost a half century.

FRANK A. HALL.

Frank A. Hall, a representative and enterprising citizen of Boone county, is the owner of a productive farm of ninety acres on sections 15 and 22, Grant township, which he purchased in 1894 and has operated continuously throughout the intervening two decades. His birth occurred in Sweden on the 16th of September, 1861, his parents being Gabriel and Angeliza (Anderson) Hall, who were likewise natives of that country. They emigrated to the United States and took up their abode in Boone county, Iowa, in August, 1870, the father purchasing land in Grant township and cultivating it for some time. Subsequently he bought and improved a tract of one hundred and twenty acres on sections 10 and 15, Grant township, and operated the same successfully throughout the remainder of his life. He passed away in December, 1907, while the demise of his wife occurred in August, 1896. Gabriel Hall had been a resident of this county for a period of thirty-seven years and enjoyed an enviable reputation as one of its prosperous agriculturists and esteemed citizens.

Frank A. Hall, who was a lad of nine years when he accompanied his parents on their emigration to the new world, acquired his education in Grant township and remained at home until he had attained his majority. He then learned the trades of carpentering and plastering and worked at those occupations for some time. Subsequently he turned his attention to agricultural pursuits, cultivating rented land for three years. On the expiration of that period, in 1894, he purchased a tract of ninety acres on sections 15 and 22, Grant township, where he has remained continuously since, his residence being on section 22. He has improved the farm until it is now a valuable and highly productive property and yields him a gratifying annual income. Mr. Hall is likewise a stockholder, director and the president of the Farmers Elevator Company, a stockholder in the Farmers State Bank of Boxholm and chairman of the Farmers Institute of that town.

Mr. Hall has been married twice. In the spring of 1890 he wedded Miss Johanna Lundberg, by whom he had one son, Gilbert E., who is now twenty-two years of age. The wife and mother passed away in August, 1893, and on December 23, 1894, Mr. Hall was again married, his second union being with Miss Mary G. Carlstrom, a daughter of C. M. and Catherine Carlstrom, who were born in Sweden and are still residents of that country. Our subject and his wife have eight children, as follows: Francis M., Floyd M., Fred, Clarence, Levina, Ruby, May and Allen.

In the exercise of his right of franchise Mr. Hall supports the men and measures of the republican party. He is now serving as trustee and has acted in that capacity for five years, while for eight years he ably discharged the duties of school treasurer and for four years held the position of assessor. He is identified fraternally with the Modern Woodmen of America, and his religious faith is that of the Lutheran church. Mr. Hall has lived in Boone county for forty-four years and during that time has risen to a high place in the ranks of progressive agriculturists and useful citizens.

JOHN W. WEIKEL.

John W. Weikel, a merchant and grain dealer, conducting business at Jordon Station, was born in Preble county, Ohio, near Camden, in November, 1866, a son of Joseph and Eliza (Huffman) Weikel. His paternal grandfather, Jacob Weikel, was a native of Pennsylvania and in early life removed to Ohio, settling in Butler county. There he took up land which is still owned by his son Jacob. The grandparents died in the Buckeye state, and they are survived by seven children, their sons John and Joseph having passed away. The former went with his father to Preble county, Ohio, and purchased a farm in 1865. He married Miss Leiter and continued a resident of that county until his death. Samuel, who married a Kentucky girl, is living in Montgomery, Indiana, at the advanced age of eighty-seven years. Eva married Henry Brill, who is living in Preble county at the age of eighty-seven. Susan, the widow of John Smith, is also living in Preble county. Mrs. Kate Kerns is a resident of the same county.
