DEATH COMES SUDDENLY

Harry W. Ramseyer dies

Harry W. Ramseyer, 70, of 1415 East Washington Street died in his sleep this morning at his home. He had been in his usual health yesterday.

Mr. Ramseyer was a civic leader and businessman in Washington for many years. He was recently named state commander of the Veterans of World War I and was a former state legislator from Washington County.

Mr. Ramseyer was born in Pulaski, Iowa, May 28, 1896, a son of John Henry and Elizabeth Ann Brenneman Ramseyer. He attended schools in Pulaski, graduated from Bluffton College in Ohio, and did graduate work at the University of Wisconsin.

On Sept. 6, 1926 he was married in the Little Brown Church at Nashua, Iowa, to Lena Irene Prevo.

He served as an elder in the First Presbyterian church here and the funeral will be held there Sunday at 2 p.m. with Rev. Clarence Dehne in charge. Jones Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements, and friends may call there.

He is survived by his wife: one daughter, Mrs. Ronald (Gwendolyn) Schneider ofavenport; one son, Dr. Harry W. Ramseyer Jr. of Phoenix, Ariz.;

and six grandchildren. Two brothers and a sister preceded him in death.

Mr. Ramseyer established the Ramseyer Hatchery and Feed business here in 1925. In recent years he had worked as an inspector for the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

He was one of Washington's most public-spirited men, having served as past president of the Washington Board of Education; past president of Rotary Club; past president of the Chamber of Commerce; past president of the Iowa Poultry Improvement Association; and as a member of the Washington County board of health.

He represented Washington County in the state legislature for six years.

He was a member of the national legislative committee for Veterans of World War I and recently was named state-commander of that organization.

Graveside rites at the cemetery will be conducted by the American Legion.

HARRY W. RAMSEYER

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Harry W. Ramseyer, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Harry W. Ramseyer was born May 28, 1896, in Davis County, Iowa. He attended schools in Pulaski, graduated from Bluffton College in Ohio, and did graduate work at the University of Wisconsin.

On September 6, 1926 he was married in the Little Brown Church at Nashua, Iowa to Lena Irene Prevo. To this union were born one son and one daughter. Mr. Ramseyer died on July 8, 1966 at Washington, Iowa.

Mr. Ramseyer was a member of the First Presbyterian church and served as Ruling Elder for many years. He served as president of the Washington Board of Education; president of Rotary Club; president of the Chamber of Commerce; president of the Iowa Poultry Improvement Association; and as a member of the Washington County board of health. He was a member of the national legislative committee for Veterans of World War I and was named state commander of that organization.

He is survived by his widow, Lena Ramseyer of Washington, Iowa; one son, Dr. Harry W. Ramseyer, Jr. of Phoenix, Arizona, and one daughter, Mrs. Gwendolyn Schneider of Davenport, and their families.

Mr. Ramseyer, a Republican, served in the Iowa House of Representatives in the Fifty-fourth, Fifty-fifth, and Fifty-sixth sessions of the General Assembly as the representative of Washington County.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SIXTY-SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF IOWA: That in the passing of the Honorable Harry W. Ramseyer, the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.
