Obituaries

HAROLD A. TABOR

Harold Adelman Tabor was the second child of A.E. Tabor and Nancy Ann Bullard Tabor. He died April 7, 1977 at Decatur County Hospital in Leon, Iowa. An autobiographical statement he wrote several years ago begins:

"I was born on the 19th day of July, 1897, near Wray, Colo. On my mother's side there was the heritage of several generations as members of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. My father learned of the church after meeting my mother but had joined the church and was actively engaged in its work before I was old enough to remember. Some of my first memories go back to Sunday school and church experiences. A few days following my eighth birthday I was baptized together with a number of other children and young people."

Loyalty to the principles of the church he joined and dedication to Jesus Christ marked his entire life. A partial listing of his many occupations and interests illustrates his children and other youths to teaching adult education classes and at church, and by his study. He attended Grace 1917 and later took classes when he moved to Lamoni.

He functioned in the Realm of Jesus Christ of Latter variety of official positions. to the priesthood offices of Priest in 1930, Elder in Priest in 1942. While in Colorado as pastor of the Wray branch 1945, was a Bishop's A counselor to the President Colorado District. In 1945 felt led to move to Lamoni in the Oland congregation, the Stake President from 19 member of the Lamoni Stake for 20 years, and was manager and Graceland College for years.

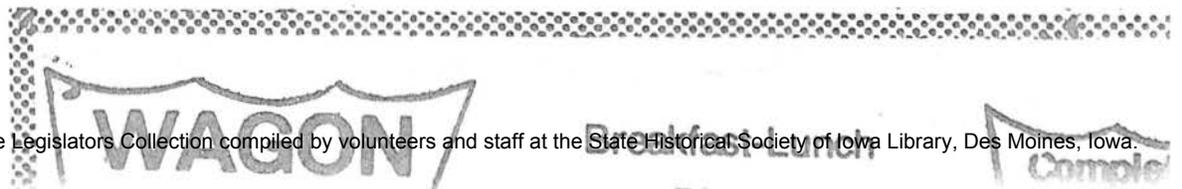

He married Laura Curtis 1919. They had five children living: Mrs. Corinne F. City, Mo., Eugene H. Kathryn L. Blair of Lam Nancy A. Harper of Ray James R. Tabor of Des Moines. In addition to his wife, through marriage partners, he is grandchildren, 5 great-grand his sister, Mrs. Ellen Brow

Harold Tabor was a kind strong, intelligent and wise the pervading love of God. freely give of himself in service. The fruits of his life are communities he helped build and joy he gave to the many remember and love him.

sense of stewardship which led him to serve wherever there was a community or individual need.

Most of his life Harold Tabor farmed, first near Wray, Colorado, and after 1945 near Lamoni, Iowa. He was a successful farmer, interested in innovations and in conservation of the land, and possessed a knowledge of good farming practices.

He participated in local politics and served in the Colorado State Legislature for 10 years and in the Iowa Legislature for one term. He helped establish several businesses in Lamoni he felt were needed by the community and served on the boards of others. Among these were the Lamoni
