Harry Moore,
Former Butler State Legislature, Died

Harry A. More was born March 14, 1882 at Clarion, Iowa and died at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Saturday morning, Aug. 14, 1963.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs.
John E. Moore, who preceded him in death.

Mr. Moore married Julia Van Gelder at New Hartford, Iowa, who preceded him in death on July 4, 1962; also one daughter in infancy, Doris.

He served as County Superintendent of Schools of Black Hawk County and served for four terms in the Iowa House of Representatives from Butler County. For over 30 years he was engaged in farming and in the Implement and Feed and Grain business in New Hartford. He was a member of the Methodist Church of New Hartford and of the Beaver Masonic Lodge.

Survivors are Mrs. Harriet (Sidney) Shapire of Washington, D. C.; Mrs. Alice (Harry) Schooley of Indianapolis, Indiana and Robert Moore of New Hartford, Iowa; and two brothers, Edward Moore of New Hartford and Ralph Moore of Oakland, California.

Additional survivors are five grandchildren: Mrs. John (Barbara) Moore, Messrs James and Stephen Moore, Misses Jane and Harriet Schooley, and three great-grandsons: William, Brian and Jeffrey Moore.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Dahl funeral home Cedar Falls and the Methodist Church, New Hartford.
Burial was at New Hartford.

Dutch elm disease had been found in Waterloo and Black Hawk County as early as last year. Now Dutch elm tree disease has been verified in the Jenny town ark. Plans are under way for a campaign in Grundy Center.

It would be suggested that anyone noticing elm with dead limbs or dying in this area, notify authorities.

ASCS Community
Election Date
Announced

The annual elections to name community committees of the ASCS agency of the U. S. Department of Agriculture will be held on Thursday, September 19; it was announced this week by Herman Stubbe, chairman of the Butler County ASC committee.

He said the elections will be conducted at evening meetings to be held simultaneously in all 1600 townships in Iowa.

The meetings are scheduled for 8:00 p.m., a time which fits in best with summer-time farm work.
The location of the election meetings will be announced later, chairman Stubbe stated.

Three community committeemen and two alternates will be elected at each township meeting to serve one-year terms beginning October 1. The chairmen, vice-chairmen and regular members of the newly elected community committees will serve respectively as delegates, first alternate delegates and second alternate delegates to the county convention on September 28 to elect the county ASC committee.

All farm owners, operators and tenants who are participating or are eligible to participate in one or more of the ASCS farm programs are eligible to take part in the community committee elections. In the state as a whole, there are approximately 271,000 producers eligible to vote in the community elections.

Programs administered on the local level by the ASC county and community committees include the feed grain program, wheat stabilization program, cost-sharing conservation work (ACP), acreage allocments, marketing quotas, commodity loans, farm storage facility loan and incentive program and the sugar program.

council and was mayor of Iowa City from 1954 to 1958 and again in 1960 to fill a vacancy.

Mr. Mercer, a Democrat, served in the Forty-fifth, Forty-fifth Extra, Forty-sixth, Forty-sixth Extra, Forty-seventh, Forty-ninth, Fiftieth, Fiftieth Extra, Fifty-first, Fifty-second, Fifty-second Extra, Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth sessions of the Iowa General Assembly as a state representative for six years and then as state senator for twelve years from Johnson County.

Surviving Mr. Mercer are his widow; two daughters, Mary Elizabeth (Mrs. John) Dawson, of Downey, California, and Dorothy Harriet, at home; a brother, two sisters, and four grandchildren.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Sixty-first General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Leroy Samuel Mercer the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the remaining members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the members of the family of the deceased.

HARRY A. MOORE

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Harry A. Moore, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Harry A. Moore was born March 14, 1882, in Wright County, Iowa. His family moved to a Black Hawk County residence and he attended schools in that county. He attended the State Normal School (now State College of Iowa), and taught at Dike, and at schools in Waterloo, and then served as County Superintendent of Schools in Black Hawk County for four years.

On March 10, 1909, he married Julia Van Gelder of New Hartford, Iowa. To this union were born four children; Harriet (Mrs. Sidney Shapiro of Arlington, Virginia), Robert J., farming in the New Hartford area, Alice (Mrs. Harry Schooley of Indianapolis, Indiana), and Doris, who died at the age of five.

The Moores lived at Mason City for a couple of years, then farmed at New Hartford for a number of years, after which Mr. Moore operated a grain elevator and an implement business for a few years.

Mr. Moore served in the House of Representatives during the Fifty-first, Fifty-second, Fifty-second Extra, Fifty-Third, and Fifty-fourth sessions of the General Assembly.

Mr. Moore was always an active worker in the Methodist Church, was for several years a member of the Masonic Lodge, and the Order of the Eastern Star, and a member of Rotary International. He was a member of the New Hartford School Board and also served as chairman of the Butler County Farm Bureau for several years.

At the time of his death, August 24, 1963, he left a host of friends, his three children, five grandchildren and two great grandsons.

Therefore, Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Sixty-first General Assembly of Iowa: That in the passing of the Honorable Harry A. Moore the state has lost an honored citizen and a faithful and useful public servant, and the House by this resolution would express its appreciation of his service, and tender its sympathy to the members of his family.

Be It Further Resolved: That a copy of this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the House, and that the Chief Clerk be directed to forward an enrolled copy to the family of the deceased.

CHARLES B. MURTAGH

MR. SPEAKER: Your committee, appointed to prepare a suitable resolution commemorating the life, character and public service of the late Honorable Charles B. Murtagh, begs leave to submit the following memorial:

Charles B. Murtagh was born at Waverly, Bremer County, Iowa, on November 11, 1881, the son of James X. and Mercy B. Murtagh. He moved to Shell Rock, Butler County, Iowa, in April, 1884, and graduated from high school there in 1898. He moved to Kossuth County in April, 1899, where for one year he was bookkeeper and assistant in Fenton State Bank. Mr. Murtagh moved to Ringsted, in Emmet County, in 1900, where he was first cashier and later president of the Ringsted State Bank for many years. While at Ringsted, he served on the town council and as mayor. He was elected state representative from Emmet County and served in the Thirty-fourth General Assembly. Mr. Murtagh was a Democrat.

He moved to Algona, in Kossuth County, in March, 1912, and for more than fifteen years was cashier of the County Savings Bank. He was a member of the Board of Trustees of Buena Vista College.

Mr. Murtagh was the first State Comptroller of Iowa. He was appointed by Governor Clyde Herring in 1933 to this position and served in this capacity through 1938.

Upon his return to Algona he became president of the Security State Bank and remained as president until his retirement several years ago.

Mr. Murtagh was married in 1904 to Edna R. Cratty, and they had five children. Mrs. Murtagh predeceased her husband.
