Low Cost Housing Applie Ready; Concerned About

Approval of 2 resolutions by the Tipton city council Nov. 15 cleared the way for the filing of the application of the Pipton Low Rent Housing agency for approximately 75 housing units.

The resolutions presented by Dr. James Ramsey, chairman of the agency, included ap-proval by the council of an application of the housing agency for a loan (from the federal government) of $30,000 for surveys and planning and a formal agreement between the housing agency and the city of Tipton which included the obligations that the city assumes under the

Dr. Ramsey told the council that the program was "on schedule" and that, with the passing of the resolutions by the council, the application was ready to go in, Ramsey had no idea of the amount of time that would be required before the project was approved. The amount of money available during the next 2 years will determine how fast the project moves. It is anticipated that it will take between one and 2 years before the project start's to become a reality.

The council took another look at the question of how to get Mulgrew to finish repair work on a street program of nearly 5 years ago. The city has a series of correspondence in its record indicating that Mulgrew was willing to do the work, but it has not yet been done.

City Atty. Norm Hamiel recommended to the council that they wait until spring, since the them of their obligation
