Manager Harold Steinmetz this week released the names of those who will be in uniform for the Elma team, with the starting lineup not yet definitely decided. A final practicing of this week, May 1, and following practice, at 8:00 o'clock, uniforms will be issued to the players at the Steinmetz Farm Supply in Elma. Those expected to appear in the lineup Sunday include the following:

Jack McAvoy, Donald Rimrott, Robert Johann, Robert Hoffman, Ed Beecher, Francis Jacoby, Ray Ludwig, Ronald Hoffman, Jack Kozlen, Marvin Kirchner, Robert Voves, Ed Chihak, Robert Krall, Bruce Carter, DuWayne Kirchner, Robert Fogarty and Joseph Prochaska.

Admission for all local games has been set at 50 cents for adults, 15 cents for children under 12. Season adults tickets are now on sale by the players and at several business places in Elma, these tickets selling for $3.50, entitling the holder to attend 10 home games—a nice reduction over the single game admission price.

With several practice sessions having been held during the past few weeks, players on the Elma team are looking forward to a successful season this year — and a good deal of their success will depend upon the support and encouragement they receive from local fans. Don't hold up your support until later in the season, waiting to see how well the boys are doing — attend the first games and give the players the support they need to play the brand of ball required to win the Northeast-Iowa league. Come out to the first game Sunday. You'll have an enjoyable afternoon at very little cost and your support may be all that is needed to start the boys off on a successful season. Take yourself out to the ball game!
