many people fail to understand.
 We take a vow. We join a church, but without repenting and without feeling the love of Christ, we are not true Christians. We must repent and we must accept Christ. We cannot display a true light or reflection for Jesus by doing what the modern pagans are doing. We must become reflections of Christ.
 If you study his life, you will find that He never did an unwise thing. He never did a thing without purpose. He did everything according to the will of God, and yet man condemned Him.
 His people should have known better.

Call Collect - NIGHT RAP 729-3809

View Retirement Home of Sanborn, Iowa on December 6, 1966. His wife, Minnie, preceded him in death at the Prairie View Home on May 12, 1970. Albert continued to make his home at Prairie View until the time of his death on January 28, 1977, at the age of 93 years and seven months.

He is survived by one daughter, Harriet of Valley City, N.D.; one step-son and his wife, Henry and Kathryn Boomgars of Orange City, Iowa; seven grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; one niece, Anna Pranger of Grand Rapids, Mich.; a number of relatives and a host of friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Hattie, and his wife, Minnie; two sisters; one brother; and three half-brothers.

He made his confession of faith at the age of 19 years at the Reformed Church of Platte, S.D.; and served as elder in the consistory there and at Newkirk and Sanborn.

Casket bearers were Burton Cleveland, Willis Oostenbrug, Conrad Prins, Gerrit Roetman, Pete Van Aalsburg and Carl Postma.

A quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Van Engen and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bosch sang two numbers, "Beautiful, Beautiful Day" and "How Great Thou Art" with Mrs. Lucille Van Veldhuizen as accompanist.

Interment was in the Newkirk Cemetery, Newkirk, Iowa with Sanborn Funeral Home in charge.

I feel that as Christians we should never do unwise things. We are walking books. We are His modern disciples. So we must act like it. We cannot do as the world does. We must get in tune with the Lord's will. We must discipline our mind, heart, spirit and body. I am not saying that we must look like Gloomy Gus'es. Truly Christians are happy people. I am often asked when I awake in the morning, why there is a constant smile. Let me say this. Jesus placed it there.

Just as important as my typewriter is, this smile is also a part of me. It is a part of my witness for Christ, too. I sing, smile, and shine for Jesus. This is part of my ministry for Christ.

People are always asking how I do it. Jesus does it all. You have only to worship Him in truth and spirit. You have only to say, "Take my life", and let it be a tool for Jesus.

We can attach ourselves to many false and unwise things. We can chase the rainbows that Satan paints for us. We can go into taverns and get drunk. We can do many things, but when we do, we must admit that we are not doing the will of God. If we confess Christ and then do the work of Satan, we are sinning. We must be Christ centered, and this is what many people fail to understand.

We take a vow. We join a church, but without repenting and without feeling the love of Christ, we are not true Christians. We must repent and we must accept Christ. We cannot display a true
