C. E. Lookingbill Dies Last Night At 8:50 in the Story County Hospital

Rev. Carmen E. Lookingbill, 63, resident of Story County for over 50 years, died Wednesday at 8:50 p. m. in the Story County Hospital. He had been a patient there since Tuesday, March 4.

Funeral services will be at the Nevada Methodist church Saturday at 2 p. m. with the Rev. James Dendler of the Nevada Methodist church, and the Rev. Harold E. Smith of the Fernald Church of the Brethren, officiating. Burial will be in the Nevada cemetery beside his wife who died in Nevada June 10, 1956.

C. C. LOOKINGBILL

Lookingbill, a resident of Nevada since 1919, served three terms as State Representative from Story and Boone counties. He was a former mayor of Nevada and of Maxwell.

A native of Guthrie County, Iowa, he moved to Story County after his marriage to Addie Reitz of Maxwell Sept. 27, 1909.

He had always been active in civic affairs and in church work, being ordained a minister in the Brethren church in 1910 in Maxwell. He later became identified as minister of the Methodist church, his previous ordination being accepted.

Surviving are the daughter, Marie, Mrs. A. La Monte Loucks and her husband of Baltimore, Md., one grandson, Robert Loucks and two great grandchildren, Bradford and Cherry Loucks of West Nyack, N. Y.

The body will rest at the Ryan Funeral Home until the time of service. It has been suggested by the family, that those wishing to do so may make a memorial to the deceased by mailing check, payable to the Heart Fund, to Wesley Alexander, Nevada, 1223 Third street.

I'LL BE BACK!

SALT LAKE CITY (P) — The week end guest was gone when operators went to clean his motel room Monday. But he left behind: Twenty-one bullet holes, in walls, floor and furnishings.

A smashed heater grill and desk.

All his belongings, including two pistols and an empty whiskey bottle.

A note saying "I'll be over to pay for the damage tonight."

Police continued their search for the guest.
