Heavy Rains Lash
West for 3rd Day

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Gale-whipped torrential rains from the Pacific lashed California, Oregon Idaho and Nevada today for the third straight day, endangering scores of cities and towns and threatening to force evacuation of a city of 11,000.

The Christmastime deluge has killed six persons, left three rescuers missing and forced more than 5,000 persons to flee before raging waters of a dozen flood-swollen mountain rivers and hundreds of streams.

An amphibian helicopter carrying three Coast Guardsmen was missing and presumed down after evacuating 10 persons from an island in California's Eel River.

At Yuba City, Calif. 110 miles north of San Francisco, the Sutter County Board of Supervisors made a provisional decision to evacuate the city's 11,000 persons if and when the Feather River reaches 77-foot depth. The river was expected to reach 79 feet this afternoon.

The river is backed up behind a levee. In the disastrous 1935 Northern California flood, 38 persons died when the levee washed out and the river reached 82.6 feet.

Rampaging flood waters have forced evacuations in Guerneville, Orick, Fortuna Klamath, Loleta, Paskenta, Scotia, Rio Dell, Pepperwood, Weott, Myers Flat, Phillipsville and Miranda in Northern California.

The evacuees found shelter with luckier neighbors, in nearby towns, hotels and in emergency lodgings set up by Civilian Defense and Red Cross.

A provisional decision to evacuate the 11,000 residents of Yuba City, Calif., was made today by the Sutter County Board of Supervisors. The order to evacuate will be given if and when the Feather River reaches 77 feet, supervisors said.

The river was expected to reach 79 feet, earlier reports said. The river is backed up behind a levee. In the disastrous 1955 Northern California 38 persons died in the City-Marysville area when levee washed out as the reached 82.6 feet.

Federal, state and local aster units worked frantically through the night in 65-mile hour winds to complete ev-tion of whole towns as the raged. The Weather Bu- predicted no let up today.

Another storm, about miles off the coast, was ed to bring more rain by C mas, the Weather Bureau east.

California's Gov. Edmund Brown at midday declared northwestern counties dis- areas and appealed for assistance. Five other northern counties sent i- pleas for the state capitol.

In Oregon, Gov. Mark field issued the disaster cal placed the National Guard alert.

Gov. Grant Sawyer called the Nevada National Guard help workmen sandbag s fronts in downtown Reno a Truckee River's flood w- spilled out of the Sierra into heart of town.

Idaho's National Guard were put on emergency dut Gov. Robert E. Smylie, an men were rushed to the leaguered town of Bancro the southeastern part of state.

Natural disaster seemed order of the day. San Diego hit by an earthquake cau- panic in the downtown area widespread, but minor, age.

$305 for Partridge

By DAVE SMITH
LOS ANGELES (AP) — If you have more money than ideas left over from Christmas shopping and still can't find something for someone who has everything, try gathering complete props for the carol, "The Twelve Days of Christmas."

Don't rush in blindly, because this gift costs to the tune of five figures. But you could be the only one on your block to bestow such a remembrance.

Forthwith, then, the instructions:

"On the first day of Christmas, my true love gave to me, partridge in a pear tree," goes the first verse.

In Los Angeles, the going price for an evergreen bird is $300. Live partridges go for $10 a pair but you only need one.

After getting the basic prop, the pear tree, you need:

Two turtledoves. Authentic European turtledoves can had for $25 a pair. If your neighborhood bird importer is flout, add $1,000-$1,500 for cost of the trip to get them.

Three French hens. See 2. Four colly birds. Historically the term "colly bird" refers the European blackbird, so can pick these up along with turtledoves and French hens unless you want to take pol- license and settle for plain crows.

Five gold rings. You can out quite a pile for these, you aren't far along the list, settle for the five-and-dime variety.

Six geese a-laying. On item, timing is very important. Intermittent laying — an here, an egg there — has ruin this gift more than once.

Seven swans a-swimming. Black swans are $300 a pair
