Former Resident Dies Suddenly In Centerville

Edmund Hanson, 63, widely known in this section of Iowa, died suddenly at his home in Centerville, Sunday morning. His death comes as a shock not only to his family but to a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Hanson who had apparently been in the best of health until Sunday morning was stricken with a heart attack at 9 p. m. and died a few minutes later.

Born in Illinois he was a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Hanson. At the age of six he came to Iowa with the family and settled near Dean. He graduated from the Moulton school and later took a course in agriculture at Iowa State College.

Mr. Hanson held many public posts of importance. He was elected as Clerk of court of Appanoose and held this office three terms. He also served one term in the Iowa legislature, was fifth district Legion Commander, and was a member of the Appanoose County Soldiers Relief Commission. In all these official capacities he served capably and conscientiously.

He was a member of the Masonic lodge and had been a member of the Presbyterian church although he later affiliated with the Christian Science church in Centerville being a Charter member of this latter organization.

He is survived by his wife, four sisters, Mrs. Mary Abrams, of Moulton; Mrs. Carrie Bergdoll, of Cissna Park, Ill; Mrs. Brady Talbot, of Centerville, and Mrs. Irene Davis, of Bloomfield. A stepdaughter, Mrs. Francis Oehler, besides other relatives and countless friends are also left to mourn his departure.

Funeral services were held in Centerville yesterday afternoon with the Rev. A. C. Lawton, pastor of the Centerville Presbyterian church officiating. Burial was made in Oakland cemetery there.

JUST BETWEEN YOU AND ME

It won't be too long now before the familiar figure of Joe Curl will be missing from the Main stem. Joe hasn't reached retirement age but has decided to jump the gun a few years and go to the farm near Mark and do a little plain and fancy loafing.

At the coffee table the other morning Joe soliquized. Said he, "I could work a few more years and get a little extra retirement pay but what's the use," and he gave a shrug of his shoulders. Joe seems to think that having the Mrs. whip up three squares a day while he just "rams around" doing a little of this and a little of that is far better life than being jolted around by swinging cars.

Joe has worked for the Wabash some thirty years—first here and then there. During the past few years he has been "braking" on the Ottumwa branch. He's had his ups and downs, but he's up now—has been for several years.

He's really a "good Joe" and a guy that has a lot of friends in Moulton as well as elsewhere. Yours truly and others in and around Moulton extend a hearty "hail and farewell". Come in from the farm and see us often, Joe.

The hardest thing a person has to live with is one's own conscience. Just to prove the statement take the case of the former resident who many years ago moved to Minnesota. 'Way back 'yonder he stole a 5c eraser from Elmer Wood Co. This last week he wrote the firm a letter telling of the incident enclosing 10c to make payment for the stolen article. "I was recently converted and I couldn't sleep thinking about my misdeed. I hope this will square my account with you," he said.

Recently, in the back shop, we've been bothered with those "squirts" so frequently mentioned in Roy's column. The linotype has been on a binge that has all but eliminated whatever patience we might have been blessed with.

We first thought it might be that Roy was putting too much speed in his back shop activities.
