E. P. LAUGHLIN, 80,
DIED ON JANUARY 9

E. P. Laughlin, 80, Imogene, prominent Fremont county stockman, died Tuesday Jan. 9 at Mercy hospital, Council Bluffs. He raised registered polled shorthorn cattle. He served four terms as state representative from Fremont county, in 1926, 1930, 1932 and 1934. He attended Christian Brothers College at St. Joseph, Mo.

Survivors include two sons, Matthew J. Emerson, and Lewis E. Imogene; one daughter, Mrs. Robert (Lucille) Jardon, Randolph; two sisters, one brother and 19 grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 9 a.m. at St. Patrick's in Imogene with the Rev. F. W. Doyle officiating. Burial will be at Mt. Calvary cemetery. Buntz Tawser Funeral Home, Shenandoah, is in charge of arrangements.

Henry Shrum and Les Neiman were Lincoln visitors on Friday where Mr. Neiman consulted his doctor at Veterans' hospital.

Car

Two Manchester youths, Merwyn Schug and Bill Stanley, recently escaped death when they abandoned their car just before an Illinois Central train smashed it into a heap of twisted steel. They told authorities that the car had slid off the road, and they were unable to move it from the path of the train.

Twins

Iowa's oldest identical twins may well be Robert Byers and Dave Byers of Hartley, who recently observed their 85th birthday.

Rare

Rare coloring, brown with white stomach and a white ring just back of the front legs of a muskrat made a most unusual catch for Dwight Aitchison of near Ventura. All four feet and the tip of the tail also were white.

100

Mrs. Minnie Huser of Sac City recently celebrated her 100th birthday.
