Plan Church Program

The New Market Church of Christ is sponsoring a two-week evangelistic service which started last Sunday morning, Aug. 12 and closes Aug. 26. The evangelist, Raymond Phillips, comes from the Lincoln Bible Institute at Lincoln, Ill.; song leader is E. Harold Baird of Villa Grove, Ill. Meetings are under the directions of the regular pastor, I. E. Stickelman of Clarinda. Meetings are each evening at 8 o'clock and at 11 o'clock Sunday morning. Cottage prayer meetings Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of each two weeks.

Hold Hook Services

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Methodist church in New Market for Charles S. Hook, long time resident and retired farmer of Dallas township, who passed away Aug. 9, at the home of his son, Byard and family near Hawleyville, following a lingering illness of several months. In charge of services were Rev. Clarence Moore, pastor of the New Market Methodist church, I. E. Stickelman of Clarinda, pastor of the New Market Church of Christ and Rev. William C. Taylor, pastor of the New Market Baptist church. Interment was made in the Hawleyville cemetery.

Mr. Hook leaves his wife, one son Byard, one grandson and two granddaughters.

Mr. Hook was once state representative from Taylor county.
