ASSESSOR AND ROAD BILLS TOP HOUSE CALENDAR

First Week After Recess

DES MOINES - UP - Republican strategists in the house today obtained approval of representatives to make the county assessor bill and farm-to-market road bill special order of business for March 13 and 14 respectively.

The GOP steering committee, headed by floor leader Arch Mc-Farlane, Waterloo, held a meeting this morning at which time it was decided to get those bills at the top of the calendar the first week after the spring recess.

By a vote of 84 to 13 the house made the assessor bill, approved by the senate, as the No. 1 bill for March 13, and by 86 to 5 voted to place the farm-to-market road measure No. 1 on March 13. It also was decide dto make a senate joint resolution, calling for appointment of a 12-member committee to study Iowa, road laws, a tentative special order after it is acted upon by the senate and studied by the house appropriations and roads committees.

The house approved a bill to impose a five mill monies and credits tax on outside corporations upon capital employed in Iowa in competition with Iowa firms which are similarly taxed.

Representatives introduced 24 new measures this morning as they prepared to wind up their work and start the 10-day spring recess.

BEVIN WRONG, SAYS CONGRESS

WASHINGTON-UP-President Truman, backed by leading congressmen of both parties, held fast today to his demand that 100,000 Jews be admitted to Palestine at once.

His position was made clear in a white house statement which dismissed as "most unfor unate and misleading" the charges against him by British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin.

Bevin had told the house of commons that Mr. Truman was by volunteers and staff at the State Historical Society of Iowa Library, Des Moines, Iowa. public appeal for immigration on the over at York Kingur, the Jews.
