"Moon Pilot" Top Comedy At Windsor

Walt Disney Picture Opens For Seven Days

In what must be the most topical of all subjects — space flight plus a great cast and his well-established flair for comedy, it seems hardly possible that Walt Disney can miss with his latest and perhaps greatest laugh-getter, "Moon Pilot," which opens tonight Thursday, at the Windsor theatre for a seven-day showing. Tom Tryon, one of Hollywood's most popular and versatile of all being anniversary in 1953.

He leaves to mourn his death six children, Mrs. Clark (Lela) Mechem, of Thompson; Mrs. Watson (Mildred) Davis, of Mount Vernon; Miss Elsie Mae Van Wert, of Garner; Charles Van Wert, of Hampton; Mrs. Merwyn (Harriett) Ormston, of Tripoli; Howard Van Wert, of Fort Lauderdale, Florida; also sixteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Rose Borchers, of Chico, California, and Mrs. Emma Caldwell, of Solyang, California.

Mr. Van Wert was a very active community leader. He served eight years as Ingham township assessor and was a member of the board of directors of the Ingham Township Mutual Telephone Company for ten years. He was a member of the Hansell Consolidated school board for six years and served on the Franklin County Fair board for five years and as president of the Franklin County Farm Bureau.

He was a charter member of the county REC board and served in this capacity for twenty-four years. He represented Franklin county in the Iowa legislature for four years during the 43rd and 44th general assembly.

He was active in the Methodist church, at Hansell. He served as adult teacher in the Sunday school for many years. His church membership was with the Church of Christ, in Hampton.

His philosophy of life, his wholesome attitude toward public affairs and a democratic nation and his ability to draw his family into a strong unity of Christian fellowship shall long be remembered as the ideals he exemplified.

Services Saturday

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at the Hansell Methodist church, at 2:00 o'clock, conducted by Rev. David Schuldt. Burial will be made in the Hampton cemetery. The Vogel funeral home is in charge of the services.

On the 12th of September, 1907, Mr. Mensing was united in marriage to Miss Malinda Schirmer, a native of Franklin county, and they have three children: Louis, who was born July 27, 1908; Hilda, born April 17, 1910; and Herbert, born March 20, 1912.

Mr. Mensing is a member of the Evangelical church and gives his political allegiance to the republican party. He is now serving as township assessor and school director and is interested in everything that pertains to the growth and advancement of the community. He is a young man of ambition, energy and enterprise and will undoubtedly be carried forward into important relations with agricultural interests of his locality.

G. EVERETT VAN WERT.

G. Everett Van Wert, a representative of a well known family of Franklin county and now engaged in general farming upon the old Van Wert homestead on section 19, Ingham township, was born in Grundy county, this state, August 13, 1880. He is a son of Justus S. and Elizabeth (Rose) Van Wert, natives of New York, who came to Iowa in 1864 and located in Blackhawk county. From there they moved to Grundy and thence to Franklin county, locating in Mott township in 1888. The father engaged in farming here until his death, which occurred September 6, 1909. His wife survives him and resides upon the homestead. To them were born five children: Rose, the wife of G. C. Borchers, of Nora Springs, Iowa; Frank, deceased; G. Everett, of this review; Emma, the wife of W. H. Caldwell, of Ingham township; and Jessie, deceased. The Van Wert family has been in America since Revolutionary times and its present representatives are descended from the soldier of that name who was one of a party of three to capture Major Andre.

G. Everett Van Wert was reared at home and acquired his education in the public schools of Mott township and in a seminary at Nora Springs. He has been connected with farming interests since he began his independent career and the results of his practical experience are seen in his intelligent management of the homestead of four hundred acres on section 19, Ingham township. He follows only the most modern and progressive methods in the development of this property, which he has made one of the finest and most productive in the township.

On the 25th of December, 1903, Mr. Van Wert was united in marriage to Miss Mabel Hansell, a daughter of Othello V. and Isabel (Stewart) Hansell, natives of Iowa, for whom the town of Hansell was named. Her father is now engaged in farming in South Dakota. In his family were five children: Mabel, wife of the subject of this review; Laura, who married M. A. Tucker of Hansell; George, of South Dakota; a son who died in infancy; and Gladys, deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Van Wert have become the parents of five children: Lela, who was born February 21, 1905; Mildred, born May 20, 1907; J. S., born January 2, 1910; and Bernice and Earl, both of whom died in infancy.

Mr. Van Wert is a member of the Church of Christ and he gives his political allegiance to the progressive party. He takes an intelligent interest in community advancement and is now serving in a creditable and able way as township assessor. He is one of the successful and progressive young agriculturists of the locality, and his record is a credit to a name that has long been an honored one in Franklin county.

SHERWOOD A. CLOCK.

Sherwood A. Clock, engaged in the practice of law in Hampton, where he has made his home since 1905, has gained a large and representative clientage that has connected him with the most important litigation heard in the courts of the district during the past eight years. He was born in Geneva, Franklin county, Iowa, on the 2d of August, 1879, and is a son of Hezekiah C., and Emily J. (Roberts) Clock, the former a native of Ohio and the latter of Pennsylvania. The mother has passed away, but the father still resides in Geneva. He came to Iowa about 1860, settling at Maysville, where subsequently he removed to Old Chapin, there remaining until he went to Geneva, where he is now engaged in the merchandising business, being the oldest merchant in the county today. He has contributed largely to the commercial development and as a citizen his worth has never been questioned. He served on Governor Geir's staff and has otherwise been known in public connections, yet has always preferred to live a quiet life, concentrating his energies upon his business affairs. To him and his wife were born eight children: Claude J., in the auditor's office of the Chicago & Alton Railroad at Bloomington, Illinois; Laura, deceased; Doris Le Verne, living in Geneva;

He has been connected with farming interests since he began his independent career and the results of his practical experience are seen in his intelligent management of the homestead, of four hundred acres on section 19, Ingham township. He follows only the most modern and progressive methods in the development of this property, which he has made one of the finest and most productive in the township.

On the 25th of December, 1903, Mr. Van Wert was united in marriage to Miss Mabel Hansell, a daughter of Othello V. and Isabel (Stewart) Hansell, natives of Iowa, for whom the town of Hansell was named. Her father is now engaged in farming in South Dakota. In his family were five children: Mabel, wife of the subject of this review; Laura who married M. A. Tucker of Hansell; George, of South Dakota; a son who died in infancy; and Gladys, deceased. Mr. and Mrs. Van Wert have become the parents of five children: Lela, who was born February 21, 1905; Mildred, born May 20, 1907; J. S., born January 2, 1910; and Bernice and Earl, both of whom died in infancy.

Mr. Van Wert is a member of the Church of Christ and he gives his political allegiance to the progressive party. He takes an intelligent interest in community advancement and is now serving in a creditable and able way as township assessor. He is one of the successful and progressive young agriculturists of the locality, and his record is a credit to a name that has long been an honored one in Franklin county."
